

Today in the Quad-Cities Schools closer by ice storm

Freezing rain moved into the Quad-City area early today, slowing traffic to a crawl and causing school closings throughout the area.

A coating of ice on streets, highways and roads hampered morning rush-hour traffic and caused cancellation of school bus service in all parts of the Quad-Cities.

As a result, all classes were cancelled for today in the Granite City, Venice and Madison school districts and at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center.

All parochial schools in Granite City, Madison and Venice also were closed today, as was the Granite City Park District pre-school program. There also were school closings today in the Alton, Edwardsville and St. Louis County areas.

Classes were cancelled at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville until 4:30 p.m. today, and today's transportation was cancelled for handicapped workshop participants of Specialized Services in Madison, Alton and Collinsville.

The freezing rain was a continuation of severe winter weather that moved into the area Monday with a four-inch snowfall that also hampered traffic movements because of slippery streets.

A possibility the weather problem may become more acute later today was forecast by the U.S. Weather Service, which said freezing rain may continue throughout today, changing briefly to snow before ending late tonight.

A high temperature from the mid-20s to 30 was predicted for this afternoon, dropping tonight to a low of about 10. It was 31 degrees during the late morning.

Granite City street crews were called out at 4:30 a.m. today to spread salt at major intersections. As the morning wore on, vehicles on heavily traveled streets and highways caused the ice to become slushy, aiding traffic movements slightly.

Following Monday's snowstorm, the street department here spread 450 tons of salt and 450 tons of cinders, according to Street Superintendent Lionel Portell. Street crews in Madison and Venice also spread salt and cinders at principal intersections and on McKinley Bridge.

Portell said Monday's icing condition presented an additional problem when catch basins became clogged by slush. Two crews were assigned to clean the catch basins at street level to keep ice and

44th sewer break

A new sewer break of major proportions has developed in the eight-inch sanitary sewer line near 1928 Joy Ave., the Granite City Council was informed during its regular meeting Monday night.

News of the break—the 44th in the Nameki area since the 1973 spring flooding—was given the council by Alderman Clyde Boyd, chairman of the council's Street and Alley Committee.

Lionel Portell, city street superintendent, told the Press-Record that the break is a major one, involving the apparent collapse of about 15 feet of the 8-inch line that serves a wide area.

The break, which had been on the street department's "suspect list" of locations where trouble might develop, shut off the flow of sewage. Portell said gasoline pumps were set up during the weekend to pump sewage around the break.

He said it was impossible for street department workers to repair the break because of the water table. Workers made an excavation in an attempt to determine if immediate repairs could be made, but they hit the water table at about 11 feet and the walls of the excavation caved in, Portell said.

The sewer line at that point is 13 feet deep, Portell said. This will require dewatering to drop the underground water level around the break area before repairs can be made, he said.

Efforts will be made to acquire an electric pump for the site because of the time required by workers to operate gasoline pumps which must be refueled and started at regular intervals, Portell added.

Weather outlook for this region

Ice storm warning through today. Periods of freezing rain with heavy local accumulation. High today in mid-20s to 30. Freezing rain changing briefly to snow before ending early tonight. Low about 10. Mostly cloudy Friday with a few snow flurries and high about 20. Cold Saturday with warming trend Sunday and Monday. High Saturday in the low 30s, and lows in the teens. Sunday and Monday highs in the low 40s and lows near 30. Chance of rain or snow on Sunday.

Business cycle pattern in state

(11th of a Bicentennial year Press-Record series)

A recession, it has been said, is when your neighbor is out of work; a depression is when you are out of work.

But such business cycles in the Quad-City area and in Illinois are no laughing matter, particularly when they are still in progress.

And they seem to recur every generation—in fact, slightly often than that.

The whole trend has been studied by Sangamon State University, which notes that the pattern has become so pronounced that a growing number of knowledgeable citizens is beginning to view the apparent inevitability of the cycle with a bit of alarm.

After nearly every period of prosperity, contemporary Illinoisans tend to become uneasy about the economy.

BYPASSING ANOTHER SEWER BREAK. Granite City Street Department workers prepare an underground sewage line Tuesday to carry sewage from a new major sewer break to the nearest manhole. The new break is between the 1900 blocks of St. Clair and Joy avenues. A fire hose first was used to carry sewage to the bypass pump, but had to be replaced when it kept freezing. From left are Jim Cavaness, Joseph Crider and Marion Weiss.

Summer school outlook dimming

Administrators of the Granite City public schools have begun planning this year's summer-school program, even though there is a possibility the program may never get off the drawing boards.

Frank L. Kraus, assistant superintendent of schools, told the board at its regular meeting Tuesday evening that the state has not even begun to reimburse the district for the last summer school and may run out of funds before full payment is made.

"In my opinion there is a possibility that the state could come up short of funds before the end of this fiscal year and we, therefore, would not receive full payment for our past summer school session," Kraus told the board.

He added, "If this would happen, we would then have to take a close look at what type of program we would offer, since summer school in the past has been a program where the state would reimburse in several payments, until money runs out."

"We are supposed to receive one-sixth of our claim in

It was explained that the state, in the past, has always paid in full for summer school expenses by Dec. 15. This school year, however, the state has notified school districts that they will receive their reimbursements in several payments, until money runs out.

"We are supposed to receive one-sixth of our claim in

City hopes for reimbursements on most repairs

Granite City's municipal government has hopes of additional substantial reimbursements of city funds expended on disaster-related sewer repairs, Mayor Paul Schuler said Wednesday.

The city is acting affirmatively and aggressively to seek the maximum possible return of such funds, he said, and there is expectation that most of the repair costs associated with 1973 flooding and underground water table factors will be reimbursed.

Expenditures since 1973 total $1,694,262 in contractual payments and $145,675 city expenditures for work related to storm damage and other costs, it was related.

The Federal Disaster Assistance Administration has tentatively approved reimbursement of $768,790, subject to final federal and state audits that are being started this week. Of this, about $532,000 has been advanced to the city because of its financial need and because the initial review of municipal records showed them to be in order, the mayor said.

As part of their regular procedure, the auditors have indicated to municipal officials they will conduct an in-depth, random selection type of audit.

They will inspect the original contract, union contracts, payroll records, invoices, all city records and any other documents they deem necessary, the auditors have said.

They have said they may approve or disapprove any portion of the total amount, and may order repayment of any funds advanced but not yet approved.

Sewers may delay nursing home project

Action on a resolution that would empower Mayor Paul Schuler to enter agreements for annexation of a 10-acre tract of land proposed as the site of a new 122-bed nursing home was deferred by the City Council Monday night to permit a more thorough study of sanitary sewage and stormwater drainage facilities.

The deferral was made on a motion by Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward after City Engineer Monroe Brewer and Street Superintendent Lionel Portell differed in their opinions as to whether the Lexington subdivision sanitary sewer line would be adequate to serve the new facility.

Construction of the nursing home is proposed by Jerry S. Maeris, Inc., as developers, on Mockingbird Lane between the Steelcrest addition and the Alton & Southern tracks.

The construction site is now located in Nameki Township. Mayor Schuler told the aldermen that another land tract owned by Everett G. and Alma Steele would need to be annexed to Granite City first to make the nursing home site contiguous to the city limits, to permit its annexation.

Annexation would be necessary to permit the nursing home to tap on to city sewers. Brewer told the council that a plan to connect the nursing home facility with the Lexington subdivision sanitary line would provide emergency service, and that such a plan

Madison stores may seek similar exterior effect

Three days and evenings of formal and informal discussions between representatives of the Update

Corporation, businessmen, city officials and citizens will be tonight in Madison, with the ultimate goal being a more uniform appearance of commercial buildings fronts.

Selection of a single theme may be decided upon. Those under consideration include a Western appearance, with braced wooden posts supporting wooden overhangs covering Madison Avenue sidewalks, and a Bicentennial or patriotic theme.

The firm of urban planners from Greenville, Ill., follows a procedure in which it occupies an office for several days within an interested community and has direct dialogue with shoppers, store owners, operators of business firms and public officials.

Update has experience in both exterior and interior design improvements applicable to established business districts. Objectives include "attractive, easy and pleasant shopping." Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison commented this week.

The Update firm plans to review the ideas of merchants, consumers and government authorities and incorporate them with its own ideas before returning with more detailed sketches and plans.

Window shot out, man fires at car

After having a window of his home shot out by a passing motorist at 12:25 a.m. today, Donald Doyle, 2805 Myrtle Ave., got his shotgun out and waited for the man to return.

At 1:30 a.m., a car of the same description stopped in front of Doyle's home and a second shot was fired at the house. Doyle returned the fire, blasting at the driver's side of the car with a 20-gauge shotgun.

Doyle said the car then left north on Myrtle Avenue. He said he called police after the first incident and officers came to his home. Although he named the man he thought fired the shot, he said officers told him to see the state's attorney in the morning, if he wanted to sign a complaint.

water from backing up in the streets.

Continued bad weather has caused salt supplies to run low and an emergency order was placed this morning, the street superintendent said.

The mist and light rain during the early morning hours was registered only as a trace at the Chain of Rocks locks at 8 a.m. today. The rain became heavier later in the morning and Portel said the presence of a considerable water in the streets would result in a particularly hazardous condition if the temperature should drop by several degrees.

Following Monday's snowstorm, a large number of minor traffic accidents was reported throughout the Quad-Cities. Granite City police reported 20 non-injury accidents Tuesday. State police said they were flooded with calls of minor accidents.

This year, a total of 730 schools — excluding those in the Chicago Public League — will compete in the two series. In Class A — competition for schools with enrollments of 750 or less — 472 schools will embark on what could be a journey to the Assembly Hall in Champaign at 64 regional sites throughout the state.

In Class AA competition for schools with enrollments of 751 or more, 258 schools launch their hopes of landing a berth in the "Big Mushroom" at 56 sites throughout Illinois.

Dates for the fifth annual Class A tournament series are: Regionals at 64 sites Feb. 23-27; sectionals at 16 sites March 2-5; super-sectionals at eight sites Tuesday, March 9 (all beginning at 7:30 p.m. except the DeKalb super-sectional, which gets under way at 4 p.m.); and the state final tournament at the Assembly Hall, Champaign, March 12-13.

The fifth annual Class AA tournament series dates are: Regionals at 56 sites March 1-3 and 5; sectionals at 14 sites March 9-10 and 12; super-sectionals at seven sites Tuesday, March 16 (all beginning at 7:30 p.m. except the DeKalb and Evanston super-sectionals which start at 4 p.m.); and the state final tournament at the Assembly Hall, Champaign, March 19-20.

Highly-regarded Class A contenders Lawrenceville and Effingham (St. Anthony) have drawn byes at the Robinson and Flora regionals, respectively, while defending champion Venice, as noted, drew Assumption in the opening round of the Freeburg regional.

Buda (Western) meets Tiskwa in the opener at Peru (St. Bede) and Eldorado faces Norris City-Omaha at Ridgway in another key opener. Class AA contender Franklin Park (East Leyden) has drawn a bye at its own regional and will meet the winner of the Chicago (St. Patrick) vs. Elmwood Park game in the semifinals.

Peoria (Richwoods) meets Canton in the opener at Galesburg, and a showdown between the Knights and the host Silver Streaks in the finale could be one of the top regional encounters.

Mat Cougars vs. Illini

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville wrestling team faces three through NCAA Division I foes Friday and Saturday as the Cougars travel to Champaign and Bloomington.

SIUUE meets the University of Illinois at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Champaign. Then, at 1 p.m. Saturday, the Cougars take on Illinois State University and the University of Missouri in Bloomington.

The Cougars carry a 5-5 record into this weekend's action.

While SIUE has yet to meet Illinois, the Cougars did tangle with Illinois State and Missouri in last weekend's Southwest Missouri State Invitational. Illinois State won the most with 125 1/2 points, nosing out Missouri's 123 1/2. SIUE finished fifth in the 10-team field with 68 1/2 points.

SIUE matmen wrestled five Missouri grapplers at Southwest Missouri and came away with only one victory. Frank Savagnano continued his acclaimed performance this season as he captured the tournament's 190-pound championship, defeating Jim Paulsen of Missouri along the way 15-4.

In other matches with Missouri wrestlers, SIUE's Jim Cizek lost a 12-5 decision to Mike Szymanski in the 118-pound championship match. At 158, Dave Byrne lost to Harold Ritchie, 7-3. Byrne finished third at that weight.

SIUE's Dave Johnson, subbing for injured Dennis Byrne, lost to Dave Miller of Missouri 20-7. At 177, Mark Hattendorf suffered an 11-3 loss to Missouri's Mike Lazzari.

SIUE's place-winners in the tournament included Savagnano (first), Cizek (second) and Byrne and 150-pound Dru Meshes (third).

In matches against Illinois State wrestlers, Byrne dumped Greg Smigel 4-0 in the third place match. Meshes lost to John Trice 7-4 and Cizek defeated John Osestinski, 13-6. The University of Illinois has a 7-5 dual meet record. The Illini's top matmen are 118-pound Gary Matlock with a 25-2 record, 126-pound Kevin Puebla (26-8) and Heavyweight Kevin Pancratz (27-7).

SIUE's leading grapplers are Savagnano (24-2 with 12 falls), Dennis Byrne (19-4) and 134-pound Dave Robinson (18-5).

Trojans romp past talented Livingston five

Madison High School's Trojan basketball team gained its ninth straight cage win Tuesday night, defeating Livingston High School 74-46 here with apparent ease. Madison, now has a sparkling 17-2 record.

Livington, which had a 16-3 record going into the contest, had its normally fast playing pace slowed down considerably by Madison.

The Trojans executed a near-perfect passing game to score often while dominating the rebounds, 49-22.

The Trojans led 20-10, 38-20 and 54-28 at the quarters and the visitors never threatened. The contest saw few fouls called on rules infractions, nine against Madison and five against Livingston's Eagles.

From the field, Madison shot with 52 per cent accuracy, hitting 35 of 67, and the Eagles 40 per cent, 22 of 55. Madison netted four charity shots and Livingston two.

The visitors yielded possession of the ball on turnovers 19 times, and Madison 16.

The Trojan defense held two Livingston players who had been averaging 16 points a game each, to four points apiece.

Ten Madison players, led by Ron Jones's 20 points and Randall Jones's 16, put their names on the scoreboard. The Jones brothers also set the pace on rebound recoveries, Randall with 12 and Ron eight.

Trojan pointmakers, other than the Joneses, were Anthony Canada with seven, Joe Gulash, Danny Bankhead and Ron Williams six each, Edwin Garrett five and Curtis Bradley, Keith King and Rodney Davis, two each.

Essington has praise for former state tourney foe

James Robert Allen, a shy 6-8½ Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville freshman basketball center, from the central Illinois town of Morrisville, could turn out to be, along with another first-year player, Keil Peebles, a bright spot in this year's otherwise sad hardwood court picture, fans believe.

The Cougars are having the second worst season since Coach Jim Dudley took over six years ago.

A former SIUE basketball great, Rich Essington, now coach of the Venice High School Red Devils, Illinois Class A defending champions, is impressed by Allen. It was Allen's play which carried the Morrisville Mohawks to a quarter-final tournament game against Venice at the University of Illinois' Assembly Hall last spring.

Says Essington: "Jim Allen has a great deal of potential and I'm sure Coach Dudley will bring it all out." Coached all four years that he played in high school by John Blackburn, Allen progressed from a gangling player to definite signs of smoothness and poise under the pressure of college basketball competition.

Specifically, Essington spotlights Allen's best shot: "He has a high release on his shots. This makes them difficult to defend against," Allen is averaging eight points a game. Allen is definitely learning the college game, the battling for rebounding and up-in position, the need for concentration and the ability to endure the necessary long hours of practice, Dudley says.

Cal Luther, present athletic director and former basketball coach at Kentucky's Murray State University, whom the Cougars knocked off this season with the help of Allen's play, has this to say about Jim: "If you only had some mean pills to give him... to make him play rough... he'd be some kind of player." Pausing to laugh, he added: "Of course, Allen in the next three years will learn how to play tougher, and not necessarily meaner, either."

Allen's efforts in his high school senior year helped the Morrisville Mohawks tie with the Kincaid High Ponies for the conference championship.

"We beat them as we won the Waverly tournament, and then they defeated us in the conference game at their place," Allen recalls. He posted his highest game total as the Mohawks finished second in the Ashland tournament while losing to the Mt. Pulaski Hilltoppers. In that game, he poured in 37 points.

A farm boy whose parents breed and raise hogs, Allen has a love for the open spaces and this played a big part in his decision to matriculate at SIUE. "I visited a lot of schools, but our beautiful and large campus, plus the fact that Coach Dudley impressed me, made me decide to come to SIUE," he explains.

Like Peebles, Allen was named to numerous all-state teams. Their play after two-thirds of their first college season is promising enough to make Cougar cage fans enthusiastic about their prospects and SIUE's basketball future.

Sportsmanship, responsible conduct will be emphasized

Member schools of the Illinois High School Association (IHSAA) have embarked on a program to re-educate those who participate in or attend tournaments or meets which lead to championships in the association's 23-sport state tournament series. The topic is the responsibilities of players, coaches, officials and spectators.

Responding to a mandate of the IHSAA board of directors through Executive Secretary Harry Fitzhugh "to bring to a halt" the expanding trend of violence, growing lack of respect for authority and increasing demands to "win at all costs," schools that will serve as hosts for tournaments and meets will intensify their current efforts.

They hope to "re-educate school administrative and faculty personnel, students, parents and taxpayers in accordance with the principles of fair play, observance of the rules, and respect for the dignity of players, coaches, officials and spectators."

In a letter to principals of the schools which will host IHSAA activities in the remainder of the current school year, Fitzhugh wrote: "The board of directors strongly urges you to reprint 'The Sportsman's Creed' in the printed program (and other material) which you use at your tournament-meet and to include any additional school or conference policies concerning the conduct of participants, coaches, officials and fans who attend the tournament-meet hosted by your school."

Fitzhugh made reference to a four-part series of guidelines, outlining the responsibilities of the player, the coach, the official and the spectator, which has appeared in the Association's Official Manual of Instruction for Conducting IHSAA Basketball Tournaments since it was first published July 1, 1936.

It has been distributed each year thereafter to schools hosting the different levels of tournaments leading to the boys' state final tournament in Champaign.

"The Sportsman's Creed" is reproduced below:

The Sportsman's Creed

The Player . . .

1. He lives clean and plays hard. He plays for the love of the game.
2. He wins without boasting, he loses without excuses, and he never quits.
3. He respects officials and accepts their decisions without question.
4. He never forgets that he represents his school.

The Coach . . .

1. He inspires in his athletes a love for the game and the desire to win.
2. He teaches them that it is better to lose fairly than to win unfairly.
3. He leads players and spectators to respect officials by setting them a good example.
4. He is the type of person he wants his athletes to be.

The Official . . .

1. He knows the rules.
2. He is fair and firm in all decisions. He calls them as he sees them.
3. He treats players and coaches courteously and demands the same treatment for himself.
4. He knows the game is for the athletes, and lets them have the spotlight.

The Spectator . . .

1. He never boos a player or official.
2. He appreciates a good play, no matter who makes it.
3. He knows the school gets the blame or the praise for his conduct.
4. He recognizes the need for more sportsmen and fewer "sports."

Wood River is Saturday's foe of GC ice hockey team

With only three weeks of 1975-76 competition remaining in the Madison St. Clair Junior Ice Hockey League for players aged 19 and under, Granite City has hopes for a possible league championship for the first time in the three seasons of competition.

The local ice hockey club needs to get past Wood River this weekend, Belleville on Friday, Feb. 13, and league-leading Alton in the season finale on Saturday, Feb. 21.

League action at the Wilson Park ice rink pits Alton against O'Fallon at 10:30 p.m. tomorrow; Granite City against Wood River at 10:30 p.m. Saturday; and Belleville against Collinsville at 11:30 p.m. Saturday.

Granite City has sole possession of second place in the league standings with a 10-2 record after knocking off third-place O'Fallon during the weekend.

The local team, on Saturday, will attempt to gain its eighth straight win and stop the Wood River squad for a third time this season.

In previous meetings between the two clubs, Granite City won 11-2 and 3-0.

Alton's Flames, which had their three year undefeated status halted by a loss to Granite City last month, heads the league with an 11-1 won-lost mark.

Granite City is 10-2, O'Fallon 8-4, Wood River 4-8, Collinsville 2-10 and Belleville 1-11.

Lakeview third in tournament

Dennis McCaslin with 32 points paced the Lakeview Christian Academy basketball team to third place with a 57-48 win over the East St. Louis Bears during the weekend in a St. Charles, Mo., invitational cage tournament.

The Lakeview Patriots of Pontoon Beach drew a first-round bye in the six school tournament and then bowed 69-41 to North County. The Patriots now have a 7-7 record. The local club earlier lost 48-47 to St. Charles after leading 41-38 going into the final period; David Richardson had 17 points.

Track, field athletes at schools in Illinois compare well with those in rest of nation

Record-filled performances last spring in both the boys' and girls' state track and field meets conducted by the Illinois High School Association (IHSA) brought the state's status as a prep leader nationally into sharp focus, according to the 1975 National Honor Roll, which appear in the newly published 1976 National Federation of State High School Associations track and field rules and record book.

In addition, Illinois ranked second in the United States behind California (70 to 61½) in the 30th annual "meet" conducted on the basis of results of the state association boys' meets last spring.

The East St. Louis Senior High 880-yard relay team of Stanley Bragg, Lamar Pickett, Richard Townsend and Ed Hatcher, which blistered the tartan track of O'Brien Field on the campus of Eastern Illinois University, Charleston last May 24 with a time of 1:25.7, produced the nation's top performance in that event.

That same foursome, with a time of 1:16.88 seconds in the 440-yard relay, registered a tie for the ninth-best in the event in the nation.

Illinois athletes ranked in the top 10 nationally in 12 of the 17 events listed in the honor roll for boys.

Meanwhile, Illinois girls, who have competed in only three state meets in the brief history of interscholastic girls' competition in the state, produced performances which ranked in the top 10 nationally in seven of 15 events in the honor roll for girls.

Following is a breakdown of how the top Illinois performers rated nationally by event:

BOYS' HONOR ROLL

100 yard dash — Marvin Edmonds, East St. Louis (Sr.) :09.4, tied for third in nation.

200 yard dash — Marvin Edmonds (Philips) :17.2, fourth in nation.

800 — Steve Schellenberger, Arlington Hts. (Forest View) 1:51.9, sixth in nation.

1 mile — Kim Smith, Oak Park-River Forest 4:11.1, tied for fourth in nation.

Two-mile — Ron Craker, Elmhurst (York) 9:02.9, seventh in nation.

120 high hurdles — Greg Foster, Maywood (Proviso East) 13.5, fourth in nation.

Long jump — Larry Perry, Alton (Sr.) 24.4½, sixth in nation.

High jump — Nat Page, Evanston 7-0, tied for fourth in nation.

Triple jump — Alvin Perryman, Danville (H.S.) 49-4½, third in nation.

440 relay — East St. Louis (Sr.) (Stanley Bragg, Richard Townsend, Lamar Pickett, Marvin Edmonds) 47.2, tied for ninth in nation.

880 relay — East St. Louis (Sr.) (Stanley Bragg, Lamar Pickett, Richard Townsend, Marvin Edmonds) 1:25.7, first in nation.

1 mile relay — Chicago (Phillips) (William Moore, Gerald Davis, Benny Phillips, Eddie Hatch) 3:17.14, sixth in nation.

GIRLS' HONOR ROLL

220 — Reba Conda, Chicago (Dulles) 24.9, tied for eighth in nation.

440 — Trudi Rebsmen, Mt. Prospect (Prospect) 56.2, fifth in nation.

1 mile — Betty Oberle, Chicago (Academy-Spaulding) 5:04.4, eighth in nation.

110 hurdles — Chris Russell, Lansing (T. F. South) 14.3, tied for second in nation.

Long jump — Kim Schofield, Springfield (Southeast) 19-13½, seventh in nation.

Shot put — Mary Ann Johnson, Hoffman Estates (Conant) 45-1½, sixth in nation.

800 relay — Cahokia (Rose Wesson, Tina Cannon, Sherri Humphrey, Towanna Humphrey) 4:24.3, third in nation.

In last spring's girls' state track meet, 11 state records were broken, while another was tied. Total events contested last spring was 16.

In the boys' state track meet, which was conducted in two classes for the first time since 1925, nine state records were broken.

That sizzling performance in the boys' meet helped Illinois to score points in 13 of the 16 events conducted in the "prelim" meet.

No other state in the union last spring, including champion California, produced that degree of all-around proficiency.

The performance of East St. Louis in the 880-yard relay took first in the meet, while Page's 7-foot first in the meet, Illinois ranked second (with 763 points) behind California (2,689) and Texas (1,612).

16th win by Venice never in any doubt

Coach Richard Essington's Venice eagles continued their pronounced domination over opposing schools last Friday, defeating Marquette High of Alton 66-44 at Alton.

Venice made 30 field goals and the hosts 18, offsetting an 11-6 enemy free throw advantage. Fouls totaled 15 by Venice and 12 by Marquette.

The Red Devils, now with a 16-1 record, extended their 1975-76 winning streak to 14 in a row.

Senior Jaffee Woolfork paced Venice to victory with 20 points and Reggie Gardner collected 18.

Ron Salmond scored 10, James Turner six, James Crowder five, Larrick Arnold four and Ricky Salmond, two points.

The hosts to put the first two points of the game on the scoreboard with a field goal, but Venice controlled rebounding off the backboards and sank nine field goals in 17 attempts, moving ahead 18-6 at the conclusion of the first period.

Venice led 34-19 at halftime.

and 48-26 at the end of the third quarter.

Shooting with accuracy from over the court, Venice connected on five of 16 shots from the floor in the third quarter and put four charity tosses through the hoop to put the game out of Marquette's reach.

'Y' swimmers in AAU meet

The Tri-City Area "Y" swim team participated in an Amateur Athletic Union meet at the weekend at Belleville. Seventeen teams from Missouri and Illinois with other 400 swimmers provided 1,512 entries in 40 events for various age groups and strokes.

For most of the swimmers on the local swim team, it was the first big AAU meet.

The keen competition brought out the best times for many of the local swimmers.

Most of the participants—Shawn Allen, Leslie Allen, Denise Darnell, Stephanie Brandt, Mary Brandt, Julie Grider, Tom Bunte, John Morris, Jason Jolly, Tracy Young, Jeff Welborn and Wendy Welborn—bettered their previous times by five to 10 seconds in each of their events.

But the competition was tough and only one swimmer came back with honors.

Denise Darnell received a third-place medal in the individual medley and three fourth-place ribbons in the free style, butterfly and backstroke.

"With more meet competition and regular practice, more of the members of the team will be winning places in the future meets, especially since they know they can make great strides in reducing their times in their best events," a spokesman said.

No coaching change

"There is no truth to rumors that Bryan Wilkinson is to be relieved of his head coaching position with the Granite City High School South basketball team," Granite City Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis said following Tuesday night's Board of Education meeting.

Supt. Davis said talk that Wilkinson might be replaced as head coach after this season is unfounded and has no basis in fact.

OUTDOOR TRAILS Hunters set deer records

By ART SCHUMANN

Illinois deer hunters enjoyed record-breaking success in the gun season just completed.

With an unofficial total of 15,403 whitetail deer harvested during the six-day season, Illinois hunters set a new standard during the modern Illinois deer hunting era which began in 1957.

Top deer-producing areas were Pope (791), Crab Orchard Refuge (623), Joe Davies (615), Pike (577), Hancock (545), Adams (498) and Union (464).

Those counties, along with Crab Orchard Refuge, are areas for hunters to keep in mind when applying for permits next year.

In Illinois, receiving a deer hunting permit is only half the battle, however, since each county's lands are usually privately owned and permission to hunt must be secured.

When applying for a permit to hunt the Crab Orchard National Wildlife Refuge, however, the hunter is assured of enjoying a hunt in one of the state's primary deer ranges.

Last year, 1,311 deer were harvested on refuge lands and refuge hunting in Illinois ranked second only to Pope county.

The growth of the deer population at Crab Orchard Refuge has been phenomenal. In 1961 the deer population there was estimated at six head, but by 1966 had jumped to 3,000 with the annual

District bowling for high school girls here Saturday

High schools across the state will compete this weekend at 31 different sites in Illinois High School Association district girls' bowling competition, beginning at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Bowland Lanes, 5050 Nameki Road.

Each team will attempt to earn its way into the state finals to be held at Peoria's Town and Country Lanes on Friday, Feb. 13.

The meet here was to have been a five-school event, but the field was narrowed to four when Mount Vernon withdrew.

The girls' district is a fourth annual meet, and Granite City will be participating for the third time.

In 1974, both North and South lost out in district competition. Last year, GCHS North took top honors in the district at Vandana.

North High then was eliminated during the state meet, losing in second round action to eventual state champion Division High School. GCHS South was eliminated from advancing to state last year.

At the conclusion of the second round, the school which has knocked down the most pins in both rounds will advance to state.

In capturing last year's district, GCHS North knocked over a total of 2,159 pins in the first round and 1,975 in the second three-game series, an overall individual game average of 138.

A no-tie breaker rule also is in effect. In the event there is a tie at the conclusion of the meet, both schools involved will advance to the state finals.

Although only five girls can compete in each round, GCHS has nine bowlers on its team—Mary Brooks, Barb Brooks, Tammy Payne, Connie Acosta, Stephanie Winfield, Tammy Ambuehl, Jan Whitworth, Janine Rose and Mary Solt.

GCHS South, coached by Terry Papa, has six young ladies representing it—Becky McCommis, Paula Werthe, Diane Scrub, Karen Schneider, Robin Robertson and Kathy Lawson.

History of DeMolay explained to Rotary

The Order of DeMolay was brought to Granite City in 1921 by Granite City Chapter 221 of the Royal Arch Masons, according to Charles A. Meyer who spoke at the Tuesday noon meeting of the YMCA.

"The Granite City chapter was the first chapter in Illinois, the first chapter east of the Mississippi and the 98th chapter in the world," Meyer said.

"Our chapter received its letters on May 24, 1921, and was instituted on July 5, 1921, by the St. Louis Chapter.

"Thirty young men 16 and older were the charter members and until Jan. 1, 1968, our official name was the Granite City Chapter, Order of DeMolay. The name was then changed to the James Stuart Chapter as a memorial to Oct. 3, 1965." The speaker noted that under "Uncle Jimmy," the local chapter became the largest chapter in the state and due to his interest in athletics the trophy case in the lobby of the Masonic temple is filled with trophies of local DeMolay teams.

Qualifications for membership, according to Meyer, is that a young man must believe in God, be at least 13 years of age and petition a chapter. The seven cardinal virtues of DeMolay a young man receives in the Initiatory degree are love

Midwestern Croatian junior groups convene

The Happy Strings Junior Tamburitza participated in a quarterly meeting of the Croatian Junior Cultural Federation in late January in Gary, Ind. Nearly 60 members had left by bus from the Croatian Home in Madison. The meeting was highlighted by a dance and performance at the Gary Croatian Center. A banquet was held prior to the dance and several guests were introduced from the national lodge in Pittsburgh.

It is hoped to attract spectators from as far as the Gary-Chicago area, where "solid friendships were made at the quarterly meeting," he said.

Tuition impact on University Center, Tower Lake forecast

About 40 student representatives of various organizations at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville were told by SIUE Student Senate President Robin Roberts during the weekend that if politicians who promised to defuse the tuition hike "renege on their promises, it is the duty of students to keep them out of office."

Roberts was referring to the Master Plan Phase IV (MP-IV) document prepared by the Illinois Board of Higher Education (BHE). It proposes a 58 per cent tuition increase for in-state undergraduates and a 92 per cent increase for graduate students at SIUE. The BHE also proposed that tuition waivers — institutional scholarships — be cut to two per cent of full-time enrollment. According to Roberts, this may affect 1,200 students at SIUE who have been unable to get scholarships from any other source. Roberts said SIUE will not be allowed to retain as much of its tuition money as it has in the past due to MP-IV.

"For instance, our University Center and Tower Lake (student housing at SIUE) will be affected by this. Our tuition money is usually used to pay off bonds for these buildings."

"If the board reduces the amount of dollars the university can retain by 50 per cent, as it is proposing, we will be shy by about $200,000 needed for the married student housing alone at Tower Lake," Roberts said. "This means Tower Lake people will have to pay at least $10 more in rent, plus pay for their utilities, which are now provided in their rent. Single students will have to pay about $5 more a month plus their utilities," he said.

Roberts predicted that student activity fees will have to be raised about $5. "Without a raise, services will be cut, the building will be closed on weekends and activities will be cut back."

The athletic department will be cut by about 60 per cent. "One way we get athletes to come here is to give them tuition waivers. We will have a fee increase along with a $5 athletic fee increase just to keep the program going."

"We are trying to get women's athletics off the ground, and this will mean that we will be faced with another $5 increase," he said.

Roberts predicted that all the increases will amount to about a $60-per-quarter raise in tuition and fees for Tower Lake residents. He said that commuting students will be faced with about a $40 increase per quarter.

Painting an even gloomier

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., Feb. 5, 1976 Page 9

picture, Roberts said, "The Illinois State Scholarship Commission (ISSC) has said it is short by 15 per cent for spring quarter awards."

He added that no ISSC money will be given this summer for tuition payments. He blamed the shortage on mismanagement of ISSC funds.

"The ISSC was about $5 million short this fall. Now they come out a week and a half ago saying they are another $5 million short, bringing the total deficit to over $8-million."

Roberts urged SIUE students to back up their tuition fight at the polls.

"Approximately 80 per cent of our students were registered to vote last year. SIUE had the largest percentage of students registered to vote of any other campus in the state. Almost 80 per cent of students are from Madison and St. Clair Counties."

"All it takes is for us to get registered to vote to make these people keep their promises," Roberts said.

"Every senior public institution in the state will be hurt by this tuition increase."

Roberts gave out petitions from the Association of Illinois Student Governments (AISG), which represents 170,000 college students in the state. "Let's get 40,000 signatures at least," he urged the representatives of the organizations.

"We want to have a mile worth of signatures to take to the governor's office and enroll at his feet."

Roberts announced that the SIUE student government, along with AISG, will be conducting voter registration drives on campus. "We have got to be registered to vote and prepared to vote and to lobby. We want to make sure that on the day the legislators meet on MP-IV, they have no choice but to vote against this increase."

Roberts believes that although all state universities will be hurt by MP-IV, SIUE will be the hardest hit.

"The BHE is trying to say that we need uniformity, that every school in the state should cost the same," he said. "But there is no way you can take a person from Alton, East St. Louis or Edwardsville and say they can pay the same tuition and have the same needs as someone from Oak Park in Chicago."

"SIUE was created to give us a chance to get an education," Roberts continued. "Only six per cent of our population in this area had a college degree before SIUE. That is why SIUE was put here."

A student representative asked Roberts why lottery money wasn't used to pay for education as had been originally proposed.

"Some people say that the lottery made $72 million this year. This money is going back into the general revenue fund," Roberts said.

"The BHE wants $11 million more for students to pay for higher education. This isn't much money when you are talking about $72 million."

"Why not use the money from the lottery? Only one dollar out of seven made by the lottery could pull higher education through this crisis," Roberts concluded.

Sewer problem floods yards

Lionel Portell, Granite City superintendent of streets, said this week the city is attempting to redesign a pump in the Steelcrest Subdivision which has been malfunctioning, allowing the back yard of Larry Hutchinson, 53 Lockhaven Drive, and several surrounding yards, to flood.

The pump is used to transfer water and waste from the pressurized sewer line installed by Archer Daniels Midland Co., where the line discharges into the Granite City sewers.

Portell explained a problem in the electrical system which turns on the switch has caused it to malfunction several times, causing the industrial waste to leave the ADM line under pressure and bubble up from the ground.

Cleaning the filters in the pump corrects the problem, but only for a short time, he said. Electrical engineers have studied the pump and are attempting to design a new switching system which will remove the waste, even when the filters are dirty, he said.

The sewer line was constructed by ADM and was given to the city after completion. When a problem developed, ADM replaced the line for the city.

Portell said ADM has been working with the city, attempting to correct the problem, and has reduced the particulate matter and the temperature of the waste material going into the sewer, but the moves have failed to solve the problem.

Venice fire loss jumps

The number of fires in Venice during 1975 was up 59 per cent from the previous year and the dollar loss jumped 141 per cent, the annual report by Thomas McCosky, former secretary to the Venice Fire Department, showed Tuesday night.

The per capita loss jumped from $5.57 during 1974 to $13.44 last year, according to the report.

The total fire loss for the year was estimated at $83,175 in 1975, up from $26,200 the previous year. The 1975 loss total included $45,175 loss to property and $18,000 loss of contents.

Firemen did succeed in keeping losses minimal, however, as the report showed the total value of property in which fires occurred was $350,500, and the value of the contents was $109,500.

The average number of men responding to each fire call increased from 13.5 in 1974 to 13.9 in 1975, the report noted.

The totals do not include industrial or railroad fire losses.

Commercial fires were down from five in 1974 to two in 1975 and industrial fires dropped from 23 to 19. No losses were given in either category.

Increases in the number of fires in 1974 and 1975, by category, were: dwellings, 19 to 29; grass and rubbish, 22 to 28; cars and trucks, 19 to 25; out of town calls, 14 to 30; rescue calls, one to 23; sheds and garages, one to three, and false alarms, four to 11.

Weather delays Broadway paving

No major work on the Broadway relocation and underpass project has been accomplished during the past few weeks because of inclement weather, according to Arthur Kettenhofen, resident engineer.

In a report on the project at the Venice City Council Tuesday night, the engineer explained that pavement may not be poured on a frozen subgrade.

On Jan. 23 and 30, the weather moderated sufficiently that small sections of pavement were placed adjacent to Broadway and Second Street, where curb had previously been removed. A bituminous patch still needs to be put in and then the right lane of West Bound Broadway can be reopened, Kettenhofen said.

The city also must provide a site for disposal of approximately 1,500 cubic yards of waste material from pavement removal.

The arrest report for the month of December 1975 listed 26 adult arrests and 12 juvenile arrests for a total of 38 with a check received in the amount of $543 in fines.

A building permit application from Hugh Hairston was approved for the remodeling into apartments of a building at 718 Main St. at an approximate cost of $7,000.

The humane office report submitted by the Chief of Police listed 46 dogs picked up during the past two weeks.

The traffic report for the McKinley Toll bridge for January showed a monthly total of 198,450 vehicles crossing the bridge for a daily average of 6,402.

"I have a letter from Frank Mercer and Thomas Hooks I want to call to the council's attention," Mayor William Ebersoldt said. "On Wednesday morning at 7:30 at Charlie's Restaurant, they will have a breakfast sponsored by the Kiwanis Club to explain how the Explorer program of the Boy Scouts of America works."

"I along with Duane Georgeff and Thomas Fields are going to attend, and I would like to invite any of the council members that can to attend the meeting with us. We will leave from the city hall at 7 a.m."

This is a good program and I think we should get involved in it," Mayor Ebersoldt said.

VENICE MAN HURT Julius Stanley, 44, of 82 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, was injured in an auto accident at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday and went to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 4:45 p.m. for treatment of an injury to his left hand. X-rays were taken and he was released.

sanitary lines since the 1973 high water.

In many of the cases, city personnel have been able to make temporary repairs or bypasses.

At the time of the original installation in post-World War II years, the sewers at many points were placed at depths of 12 to 14 feet that did not take into account subsequent rising of the water table. Joints of pipes were not designed to be submerged in water, nor was there total protection against ground shifts, it was indicated at the time.

Procedural steps that were followed during repairs in 1973-74 are among the aspects being considered as part of the normal auditing process on repair projects utilizing FDAA aid, authorities have said.

The $2,500 daily charge for bypass pumping, for example, was determined by the amount specified in the successful bid following public bidding competition.

While actual payroll and other costs encountered by the bidder apparently were considerably less than the flat daily charge on some days, they apparently exceeded it on other occasions, studies have disclosed.

Specific techniques and objectives of various phases of such work, when later evaluated, can give rise to differing opinions of the need and effectiveness, authorities have said, including oversimplifications of complex tasks and factors.

The current audits are intended to penetrate the complexities and provide a factual basis on which the precise amount of verified costs can be determined, as well as the specific proportions to be borne by local and federal agencies.

Building permits in Nameoki at $46,500

Three building permits listing values totaling $46,500, including one for a new $20,000 residence, were issued by Madison County during January for Nameoki Township residents.

The new home is to be built by Burke Construction Co. on lot 37 of Northland Estates number four. A permit was issued for Dr. C. C. Kane to repair and construct an addition to an existing structure in the Kretnier first addition to Creekside Farm, which was damaged by fire.

The cost of the work was estimated at $16,000. A permit also was issued to Simon Eastep to construct a two-car garage on lot 108 of Miracle Manor Subdivision number three, at a cost of $1,500. Permits to demolish existing structures were issued to First Granite City National Bank, trustee, to demolish a residence and garage at 2406 and 2408 Pontoon Road, and to Anderson Realty Co. to demolish a residence gutted by fire at lots 22 and 23 of the McNair Addition.

JAMES STACK JR.
Assistant City
Street Superintendent

Confirm street official

An ordinance providing for the employment of an assistant street superintendent in Granite City and confirming the appointment of James Stack Jr. to that post was enacted by the Granite City council Monday night. The ordinance won acceptance following debate on the policy of appointing city employees who live outside the city, a point which several aldermen said should be set out more clearly in the city code. Stack, 28, lived at 3300 Wilshire Drive at the time his appointment as assistant street superintendent was made by Mayor Paul Schuler a week ago, but he told the council in Monday's meeting that he had planned to move to Granite City at that time and that he expected to become a resident of the city this week. The ordinance establishing the new office and confirming Stack's appointment ran into difficulty because of objections by several aldermen and was placed at final passage stage only when Mayor Schuler cast the deciding vote in favor of suspending the rules so that the bill could be offered for a final vote. A minimum of ten votes is needed to suspend the rules for final passage of an ordinance.

With 11 council members present Monday, the vote on a motion to suspend the rules was 9 to 2, with the negative votes cast by Aldermen Sam Whitmer and Gerald Parmley. Mayor Schuler cast a yes vote to give the minimum of ten votes for suspension of the rules. Parmley challenged the mayor's right to vote on an issue involving a suspension of rules, but City Attorney George Filcoff read a statutory provision giving a mayor the right to vote in an emergency situation in which his vote decides the issue. On a subsequent motion for final adoption of the ordinance, Parmley changed his vote to yes, carrying the bill by a 10 to 1 vote. Whitmer also voted no on the final adoption motion.

Charges by campus police

Charges of illegal transportation of liquor and contributing to the delinquency of a minor have been filed by university police at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville against two Granite City youths allegedly arrested with eight juveniles in a van that failed to stop at an intersection on the campus Friday night.

Facing charges are John E. Bargel, 20, and John M. Carbone, 19, both of Granite City. They were released with notices to appear in the Third Circuit Court.

Three of the juveniles were taken to the Madison County Detention Home and the others were released to their parents. The juveniles, all from Granite City, ranged in age from 14 to 16.

Bargel, described as driver of the van, also is charged with failure to halt at a stop sign. Police alleged they confiscated two and a half cases of beer and a substance from the van.

Mrs. Sowell, 62, dies in Kentucky

Mrs. Eleanor Sowell, 62, Murray, Ky., died Tuesday in a hospital. Her husband, William Sowell, died in 1958. Mrs. Sowell has numerous relatives in Granite City, including a daughter, Mrs. James (Mary Lou) Sullivan; two brothers, Will and Henry Stack; three sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Pace, Mrs. Helen Meridith and Mrs. Bessie Knight; many nieces and nephews, and five grandchildren.

But that he was "opposed to the entire concept of naming an assistant street superintendent."

Parmley said, "The first thing we know we'll be naming an assistant treasurer and a lot of other assistants. We abolished the comptroller's office as an economy move, and now we are putting on another department official. I am opposed to creating the new job and not to the person who was appointed."

Alderman Boyd, chairman of the Street and Alley Committee which screened applicants for the assistant street superintendent's post, said the committee took into consideration Stack's assurances that he would move to Granite City if he received the appointment.

School personnel changes Summer school

The Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night hired a new teacher, two secretaries and a custodian and accepted the resignations of three persons and the resignations of two others.

The new teacher is Miss Deborah M. Holt, 24, of 1025 Alton Ave., Madison, who is to teach health at Granite City High School North. She was hired for one semester only.

Betty Harris, 1709 Garfield St., was hired as an attendance clerk for Granite City High School South. She had been serving temporarily in that capacity several months.

The board also hired Norma Roney, 2715 Angela Drive, as a temporary secretary in the personnel department of the board of education office.

Harrell Smith, 25 Moreland Drive, was hired as a new custodian, filling a vacancy caused by a retirement.

Resignations accepted were from Durwood Cooley, a custodian at Coolidge Junior High School; Hazel Towery, a business education instructor at GCHS South; and Edith Harper, a cafeteria worker at Washington School.

Resignations accepted were from Lawrence Grabowski, a science teacher at GCHS South, and James Greenwald, who was hired at the last board meeting to teach health at GCHS North. Greenwald resigned with regrets before beginning his duties, noting he had accepted a professional baseball contract with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Nursing home

has been approved by the Environmental Protection Agency.

The EPA, however, had rejected an earlier plan to serve the nursing home with the line owned by the Daniel, Mann, Johnson & Mendenhall, because of a possibility that the ADM plant and the nursing home could overload the lift station serving that line.

Portell told the council, however, that he is not certain that the present plan would be adequate. He said there is a major break in a sanitary sewer line on Faith Avenue near the proposed site.

To permit the nursing home connection, rezoning also would be necessary. The site now is zoned R-1 single family and would need to be changed to R-5 multi-family zoning. Rezoning applications would be handled by the City Plan Commission.

Brewer also said he believes stormwater drainage should present no problem in that area. Whittier told the council that he was not clear on the effect the project might have on city sewer lines and that the proposed required more study. His deferral motion will permit renewal of the topic in the council's next meeting Feb. 16.

Business

for immigrants to reach the Illinois country.

But the good times ended in 1818, and the first national depression halted westward migration.

Prosperity returned with the opening of the Erie Canal in 1825, the resultant increase in the westward movement, and the resurgence of land speculation.

Riding a wave of optimism, the Illinois legislature followed the example of many Eastern states and passed a bill establishing a vast, $10 million internal improvement scheme involving railroads, canals and turnpikes.

Within a few short months, the Panic of 1837 struck, eliminating any chance that the state could finance its ambitious plan.

The panic spread economic ruin and the state's banks suspended gold payments when they were unable to redeem their notes with specie.

In 1841, the state defaulted on the interest on its bonds, and fell to 15 cents on the dollar.

During the 1840s and the first half of the 1850s, good crops brought high prices.

This encouraged a new wave of immigration into Illinois from Northern Europe and the Eastern states.

Liberal land laws in Congress encouraged farmers, while Chicago began its own spectacular rise to become the most important commercial center in the Midwest.

Growth, however, was interrupted by the Panic of 1857, which caused unemployment, a drastic decline in land prices, and an economic slowdown that did not pick up again until the Civil War.

The war created vast wealth in Illinois, particularly for industrialists in Chicago who supplied the war effort.

But wartime prosperity ended in September 1873 with the failure of the Philadelphia banking firm of Jay Cook and Co., considered the most powerful in the country.

Within a short time, Illinois banks went into temporary suspension.

Bank loans were contracted on the average of 25 per cent. Heavy industry grinded for weeks but out of the six years, farm prices spiraled downward, and 1877 saw the first national strike.

The 1880s witnessed magnificent industrial and commercial growth which lasted until 1893 when panic struck again, the effects multiplied by the closing of the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago at the end of October.

Banks failed, Chicago was flooded with transients, and the Pullman strike represented the statewide labor dissatisfaction.

But true to the pattern, prosperity and optimism were as great as ever by the turn of the century.

The 20-year cycle was interrupted somewhat by World War I.

The so-called Great Depression of the 1930s, however, triggered by the collapse of the stock market in 1929, created unparalleled hardships throughout Illinois.

It was not over, of course, until the war-sponsored growth ended it in 1941 for "artificial" reasons.

In spite of New Deal remedies, economic downturns recurred in the late 1950s and the mid-1970s.

For 150 years in Illinois, the business cycle has been responsible for creating and for destroying great fortunes and countless political careers.

It has been an important part of the economic history of the state.

And it may well be part of the price of the degree of economic freedom Illinoisans and Americans enjoy.

New bids scheduled for Mitchell school pump

Bids for supplying and installing a new lift pump for the sewage treatment plant at Mitchell School were rejected by the Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night and the board agreed to seek new bids for the pump only.

The lowest bid received was from Russell J. Smith, Inc., St. Louis, the only wholesale distributor in this area for the type of pump needed, and requested $3,707 for the pump alone.

Other bids for the pump installed were received from Triangle Heating Co., for $6,783, and from Grove Plumbing & Heating Co. for $7,300.

Ronald Landman, maintenance supervisor for the school district, noted that the $3,000 difference between the pump price from the distributor and the lowest bid for the pump installed would warrant having the school district's maintenance personnel install the pump.

"They disconnected the old one and took it out. I would think they could install the new one and connect it," Landman said.

Board members said they did not feel they could accept the bid for the pump only, since the request for bids called both for supplying and installing the pump.

They agreed to seek new bids for the unit.

Since there are no sanitary sewers in the Mitchell area, a sewer owned by the school district goes from the school to a lift station where sewage is lifted into a small treatment plant. It then is treated and discharged into a ditch.

The board also awarded contracts for chili beans, cat-sup, tomato soup and mushrooms to three suppliers with the contracts totaling $5,298. All were awarded as low bids to specifications.

Contracts were to Edray Foods, Inc. for $1,730, Taurus Meat Co. for $3,325, and Switzer's Inc., for $235.

Contracts were awarded to three bidders to supply equipment for a color guard at Granite City High School North, including plastic rifles, flagpoles, flags and other items.

The contracts, totaling $81, were to Intermedia Inc., for $549, Tom Marti for $276, and Tom Peacock's T.B. Enterprises for $66.

Contracts totaling $905 were awarded to three companies to supply insignias, certificates and awards for use in girls' sports, for cheerleaders and for other awards. The contracts were to Bruce Redman's Awards & Sportswear for $550, W.R. Moody Co. for $150 and the Bale Co. for $96. All were on the basis of low bid to specifications.

The board approved the replacement of several items stolen from various schools and needed immediately. Tully A. Heubner, director of business affairs for the school district, explained competitive prices were obtained on all the items, but there was not time for bidding on the items.

Items replaced included two cassette tape players, purchased from National Learning Systems, Harrisburg, Ill., for $90; a copy machine from Dacom Corp., St. Louis, for $349, and four cassette players, one cassette recorder and two record players, all purchased from Fox-Stanley Photo Products for $424.

Rites held for victims of monoxide poisoning

Funeral services were held this week for Miss Eva Marie (Clutta) Chase, 49, Mitchell, and David L. David, 27, of Granite City, whose bodies were found Saturday in a parked auto near Mitchell. Both were the apparent victims of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Services for Miss Chase, of 21 Moorland Drive, Mitchell, were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at a Granite City Funeral home. Burial was in Sunset Hill Cemetery in Edwardsville Township.

Rites for Mr. David were held at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Wednesday. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery in Edwardsville Township.

Miss Chase leaves her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene (Betty) Henry, her father Millard Clutta and adoptive parent George Chase, three brothers, a sister and grandparents.

Mr. David was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindell David, and his mother, the late Catherine David, four brothers and a sister.

The couple were pronounced dead at 2:45 p.m. Saturday by Edward Werner, Madison County deputy coroner, who said that an autopsy performed on Mr. David Monday ascertained the cause of death as carbon monoxide poisoning.

They were found seated in a car parked on the Merchants Transportation Corp. Road six-tenths of a mile north of Franko Lane near Mitchell. Sheriff's deputies said the car's ignition switch was in an "on" position and the gas tank was empty.

Miss Chase, a native and lifelong resident of Granite City, was employed as a cashier at the Camelot Music Center in the St. Clair Square Shopping Center, Fairview Heights. Mr. David, who lived at 1812 August St., also formerly lived in Venice and Madison. He was a switchman for the Terminal Railroad Association.

Dance program Monday night

Utah Repertory Dance Theater (RDT) will present its concept of "modern dance democracy" in a lecture-demonstration at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Monday, Feb. 9, at 8 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

RDT defines itself as a democratic organization dedicated to creative freedom. As such, it is not under the leadership of one artistic director; each of the 12 dancers contributes to the overall direction the company takes. Members have the opportunity to teach and choreograph as well as express themselves through the performance of a variety of choreographic styles included in the repertory. RDT is in permanent residence at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City.

The program is a presentation of the University Center Board (UCB) of SIUE in cooperation with the Dance Concert Society of St. Louis. "It is part of a continuing effort to develop a dance audience in the local area," said Frank Siano, UCB performing arts advisor. Admission for the Monday performance is free.

Striker charged in truck fire

A member of a union local on strike against R. Dron Electric Co. and several other electrical contractors, has been charged with setting fire during the weekend to a Dron company truck, parked at the Illinois Power Co. office in Belleville, Robert A. Bailey, 29, Belleville, a lineman for the Dron firm up to when the strike started, has been charged by Belleville police with arson. His bond was set at $25,000.

Officials say Bailey is a member of Local 309 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, which has been on strike since Dec. 11 against Dron and several other contractors who are members of the American Line Builders'

Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors' Association. A St. Clair County sheriff's deputy said he was dispatched across the street from the power company yard during the weekend on a report of a suspicious parked vehicle. While the deputy was watching the car, he heard an explosion within the power company yard, saw flames and saw a man running from the vicinity of the power company toward the car being watched. The man was stopped and officers alleged smelling gasoline on his clothing. Belleville firemen were called to the scene and found a Dron truck and a nearby trailer ablaze.

A gasoline can was found nearby and there were indications gasoline had been siphoned from another truck and had been poured on the truck and trailer, which then were set on fire. Firemen said there were about five other Dron trucks parked nearby and, had the gasoline tank of one truck exploded, all of the trucks could have been destroyed.

The truck and trailer which were set on fire were demolished and a Dron spokesman estimated the damage at about $20,000, including the tools and equipment which were on the truck. The Dron official said Bailey had been employed from the union office up until Dec. 11, when the strike began. He contended all of the strikers are no longer employed by Dron, since all have signed up with the union for referral to other companies. The strike is the result of failure to reach an agreement between the NECA and the local on a new contract. The old contract expired Nov. 30. The role of foremen in small crews has been cited as a main factor in the failure to reach agreement on a new contract.

Max Roby to head Easter Seal drive

Newsreader Max Roby has been selected to serve as 1976 campaign chairman for the annual Easter Seal drive in Southwestern Illinois, according to Jim Bolen, president of the society.

Roby will help spearhead the annual Easter Seal solicitation in 11 Southwestern Illinois counties that include Bond, Calhoun, Clinton, Green, Jersey, Macoupin, Madison, Monroe, Montgomery, St. Clair and Washington.

The Easter Seal Society of Southwestern Illinois is one of the area's oldest voluntary agencies serving the needs of handicapped children and adults.

Monies raised during the 1976 drive will help support a variety of services offered area handicapped. They include: information, referral and follow-up services, purchase of orthopedic equipment, equipment loan pool, Post-Stroke Club, summer day camping programs for children and a public education program designed to make communities aware of the needs of the handicapped.

This year's annual Easter Seal campaign drive begins March 1 and ends Easter Sunday, April 18.

April opening of O.K. Corral

The O.K. Corral, a new lounge under construction behind Corral Liquors, 3304 Nameoki Road, will open about April 1, B. C. Gitcho, the developer, said this week.

Gitcho said the lounge is nearly completed, but will not be opened until the parking lot area is paved. He said he wants to wait until the winter moisture is out of the ground before he has it paved.

Home burglarized

Doris McDonald, 4728 Lake Drive, told Pontoon Beach authorities that her home was burglarized after entry was gained through an unlocked door during the weekend.

Reported taken were an AM-FM stereo and tape player valued at $180, two rifles with a total value of $170, 10 boxes of shotgun shells valued at $50 and $30 in assorted coins. A typewriter and color television set was found near a kitchen door.

Expanding role for port district here

The Tri-City Regional Port, which has been known recently for its handling of such basic commodities as grain, fertilizers, oil and chemicals, is also being accepted as a more versatile facility. A wide variety of commodities is now being loaded onto and unloaded from barges here.

For the past few days, large white oak logs from Missouri and Arkansas have been brought here on trucks and loaded onto barges for shipment to Hamburg, Germany, where they will be used for veneer on furniture.

Also currently in progress is the unloading of barges filled with copper sheets from Belgium, being sent to Cerro Copper and Brass Works in Sauer.

Another unusual shipment at the port consisted of three large barges loaded here with Pampers paper diapers, being sent from Springfield, Mo., to several parts of Europe.

Late this week, 11 truck-sized containers of chemicals from the Monsanto Chemical Co. are due at the port to be loaded into barges and sent to Bremerhaven in northwestern Germany.

The white oak logs are being loaded into 32x62-foot "lash" barges weighing 500 tons each, which also will be lifted onto overseas ships.

Carl Ranft, port manager and secretary of the port district, said the new commodities are examples of the growth expected at the port district in the near future as it becomes more widely known as a "truly regional port capable of serving the needs of the entire region."

Squad car at GCHS South is vandalized

Students at Granite City High School South were believed to have caused several hundred dollars damage to a Granite City Police Department squad car, parked behind the school at 9:10 a.m. Wednesday.

A police officer had returned a student to school, parking his car behind the band room, and reported when he returned that about 50 lighted cigarettes had been thrown on the car, damaging the paint.

It appeared numerous students had spit all over the car and the air had been let out of all four tires.

Illinois Bell wins rate hike

The Illinois Commerce Commission informed Illinois Bell Telephone Co. yesterday that it may charge its three million customers for directory assistance service and raise the price of local calls from coin telephones from 10 to 20 cents.

The commission granted the company rate increases intended to boost the utility's revenues by $70 million a year, but rejected requests for a general increase in rates and other changes that would have increased the company's income by $186 million.

Under the order, Illinois Bell may charge customers 20 cents each for directory assistance calls after the first six calls each month. The charge of 20 cents for coin telephone calls may be made only after the utility converts such phones to "dial-tone-first" telephones with which it is possible to reach the operator or dial an emergency number without payment.

In its order the ICC allowed Bell to increase its rate of return from 8.5 per cent to 8.75 per cent. The company had requested a rate increase of 9.5 to 10 per cent.

James E. Olson, president of Illinois Bell, described the ruling as "unrealistic" and said the utility will file a new rate request soon.

Olson said: "The Illinois Commerce Commission's rate decision is completely unrealistic. It falls woefully short of what this company needs to provide reliable, high-quality telephone service. This will force us to file for a new request for rates very soon."

"Meanwhile, we will ask the commission to reconsider its decision. Failing that, we will appeal the decision in the courts. We have no other choice. Nobody wants higher priced telephone service. But we think that is far, far better than letting service suffer."

"We've received too few dollars to do all that should be done."

"Naturally, we'll continue to provide the best telephone service that we can, but this order could well cause problems with our ability to pay for our 1976 construction program. No one benefits from this kind of situation, least of all the public."

"We have been a victim of inflation—certainly not its cause. It's been two years since our last rate relief. Prices rose 20 per cent during this time. Today's order provides us with only 5 per cent."

"This commission order simply does not respond to the seriousness of our economic situation."

Robbery at confectionery

Two robbers took about $45 from the Ridgedale Confectionery, 2500 Nameoki Road, at 6:40 p.m. Monday.

The owner said he and a clerk were behind the counter when two men entered. One stayed by the doorway while the other went to the counter and announced, "This is a holdup. I want your money. All of it. Give me all the money."

The man at the counter then told the man at the door to "Keep a watch out." The man at the door then displayed a small caliber silver automatic pistol and demanded money from the clerk. The woman clerk complied and gave him all the money from the cash register.

The gunman then told the owner and clerk to lie down behind the counter and not to get up for five minutes.

A witness saw the men leave the confectionery and said they fled across the street and into Kirkpatrick Homes where they got into an old brown or tan station wagon and drove on Ridgedale Avenue to East 23rd Street, then turning on East 23rd Street.

Police questioned the owner, clerk, witness and another confectionery employee who hid behind a curtain in the kitchen area during the robbery.

They described the first robber to approach the counter as about 5 feet, 9 inches tall and having dark collar-length hair. The second robber was about 6 feet, 3 inches tall and had a mustache, they related.

The witness, who said he was near the confectionery at the time of the holdup, said he saw a tall man and a short man, both with long hair, dash out of the confectionery with both yelling, "Run, run."

He said they ran east on 25th Street to a station wagon and the tall one got into the front seat while the shorter one jumped into the rear seat behind the driver.

He said the vehicle had dark wood grain design on the sides and a rack on the top and may have been a Ford, 1972 or later model.

County appeals board favors rezoning plea

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will recommend to the Madison County Board Feb. 18 that it approve requests for rezoning the MacLair Asphalt Co. property at 8303 Collinsville Road, and a request for a special use permit to place a mobile home north of the Westinghouse plant off Route 162, both in Nameoki Township.

The board also recommended that a request for a special use permit for a storage barn and stable north of the Fairmount Racetrack be denied.

The recommendation that the MacLair Asphalt Co. request for rezoning be approved would allow continued operation of the facility. A change from R-3 single family residential to M-3 heavy industry is recommended.

The mobile home request was filed by Mrs. Mildred E. and Larry Anderson, asking for a special use permit to place a unit in an agricultural district, near where the old club houses used to be.

There were no objections at public hearings on either of the requests.

It is recommended that the request of Olive E. and Billie M.

Meyer, by Clayton Johnson, agent, and Bud Sullivan, agent for the purchaser, for a special use permit to construct a storage barn and stable north of the race track be denied.

They had proposed a storage barn to keep hay and feed, supplying both the Fairmount and Cahokia Downs race tracks. They also wanted a barn to stable 15 horses. The property is in a B-3 highway business district of Nameoki Township.

Fifteen persons were present at a public hearing on the request and four spoke against granting the permit.

The zoning board also is recommending that a request by the Pentecostal Assembly of Jesus Christ, filed by the Rev. Frank Gabriel, be held over one month for further consideration.

Rev. Gabriel is requesting a special use permit to place a mobile home at the church on Highway 162, across from Stahlberg School in Nameoki Township.

It was recommended the request be held over because the applicant was not present at the time of the hearing.

Backing for aged—Howlett

As governor, Michael J. Howlett would put the full weight of his office behind Lt. Gov. Neil Hartigan's programs for senior citizens, he said Wednesday.

Howlett and Hartigan both spoke at a luncheon of Seniors for Howlett and Hartigan in the John F. Kennedy Union Center, Ottawa.

"Lt. Gov. Hartigan has been a champion of senior citizens," said Howlett. "He was the prime mover in creating the state Department of Aging."

"He led the fight to give senior citizens a $34 million tax relief program. It was vetoed by the governor, who is my opponent in the March 16 primary. Hartigan led the fight again to pass it."

"There are more than a million persons over 65 living in Illinois. In 1950, only 2.5 per cent of the American people were 65 and over; today they are one in 40."

"We must never forget, or neglect, the men and women who have contributed so much to our civilization. Many of them are on fixed incomes and suffer most by inflation, especially in medical care, food, rent and utilities."

"As secretary of state, I created the first senior citizen division in our office."

"For the first time, anywhere in the U.S., we organized a statewide driver education course for senior citizens," Howlett said.

"We had found older drivers had good records. They drove less and had fewer accidents. But they flunked the renewal test on the first attempt more often than younger drivers."

"Seniors learned to drive before we even had a driver's license law. With all their experience, they didn't have the up-to-date knowledge of the law, the recognition of new signs and symbols, and the confidence of the high school youth who had been given a driver education course."

"Through senior citizen organizations, we recruited volunteers to conduct classes. They were trained by our office, using the Rules of the Road as a text."

"More than 10,000 seniors have taken the course. So far, we have never heard of a single graduate failing the driver's license test afterward."

"My office worked to pass a new law in the legislature; it reduces from $8 to $4 the driver's license fee for citizens 65 and over. At that age, a driver must take a road test every three years to renew his license as well as the visual and written tests."

"As governor, I will make Lt. Gov. Hartigan the number two man in state government and use the authority of my office to support his plans for senior citizens."

"It is no sin to be 65. Everybody who is under 65 wants to reach it and keep going."

Teen official will give talk

The Rev. Jack Borth, executive director of St. Louis Teen Challenge, will speak at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at Rustio's, 204 N. Bluff Road, Route 157 south of I-55-70, at a dinner meeting of the Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship.

An Assemblies of God minister, he is a counselor, Bible teacher and evangelist. The group also plans a luncheon meeting at Rustio's at noon Feb. 21.

Charter issued

The state of Illinois has issued a foreign corporation charter to Eastland, Inc., 2124 Pontoon Road, a Delaware corporation. John Sobol is president with Maurice Dailey, Niedringhaus and Edison avenues, listed as secretary. The corporation is "to buy, sell, develop and improve real estate," according to the charter.

Correspondents are Dailey and Walker, attorneys, Niedringhaus and Edison avenues, Granite City.

SUIT FOR $400,000
Herbert L. Sanders has filed suit in Madison County Circuit Court seeking $400,000 from the Norfolk and Western Railway Co. He contends that on Oct. 13, 1975, while employed as a laborer, he was hurt while attempting to turn a rail.

Wilson PTA plans Founders' Day

A Founders Day program and talent show are planned at the Wilson School PTA meeting, scheduled at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 17, Mrs. Dorothy Baker, president, announced this week.

Members of the PTA executive board met Tuesday evening at the school and finalized details for the coming program. Special honors will be accorded Mrs. Harriet Evans, immediate past president, who served in the office for two terms, and talent presentations will be performed by Wilson students from each grade level under the direction of Miss Susan Doly.

In other business at this week's executive session, six members were chosen to represent the unit at the Granite City Area PTA Council's annual awards banquet, set Feb. 26.

Selected were Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Barbara McCaskey, vice-president, Mrs. Diane Dettler, secretary, Mrs. Phyllis Geske, treasurer, Mrs. Marie Robins, council delegate and Wilson Principal Ted Vrenick.

Plans for a May 21 picnic at the school now are being made and volunteers still are needed to help with the project, Mrs. Sylvia Woods, chairman, announced. A planning session will take place at 8:40 a.m. Feb. 16 at the school, she advised.

Room mothers are arranging Valentine parties for pupils on Feb. 13, Mrs. Baker said. Pencils purchased by the PTA may be obtained by students at the Wilson School office before classes begin each day.

Mrs. Marie Powell was appointed to a committee to select the 1976-77 officers. Additional members will be chosen at the Feb. 17 PTA meeting, it was decided.

Others attending the executive session were Mesdames Teresa Finn, Audrey Laird and Isabel Anderson.

Higher education board favors tuition and scholarship increases

A Master Plan for Post-secondary Education in Illinois, as proposed by the staff of the Illinois Board of Higher Education (BHE), was approved Tuesday in Chicago.

Commonly known as MP-Phase IV, the master plan incorporates recommendations made by the BHE staff after a series of six public hearings in January.

No changes were made in the recommendations that tuitions at public colleges and universities be increased to meet one-third of undergraduate instructional costs and that the graduate tuition level be 125 percent of the undergraduate figure.

The plan also recommends that tuition waivers be limited to two percent of each institution's full-time enrolled students.

The BHE voted to seek $3,950,000 in additional appropriations for the Illinois State Scholarship Commission to meet additional costs anticipated during the spring.

Plans for non-instructional capital improvements totaling $206,640 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville were approved Tuesday by the BHE. Projects approved are remodeling of Building 272 at the School of Dental Medicine at a cost of $180,000 and improvements of the garbage disposal system in the University Center cafeteria kitchen costing $26,640.

The remodeling project at the dental school's Alton center will provide offices for the dean, registrar, student affairs and associated administrative functions. Funds for the project will be provided by a grant from the National Institutes of Health.

Funds for the improvements in the cafeteria kitchen will be provided from University Center revenue.

The BHE also voted to cancel its March meeting, which was scheduled for the STATE campus. The next regular BHE meeting will be in April.

The BHE staff recommendations approved for incorporation in MP-Phase IV include:

—An addition concerning instructional cost base. It is defined as the most current undergraduate instructional cost data as determined by the unit cost study. Instructional costs exclude state appropriations for retirement, capital improvements, research and public service.

—An addition stating that the policy does not include waivers issued to university civil service employees and to graduate students. Tuition waivers may be awarded to eligible civil service employees of institutions according to guidelines established by the University Civil Service Merit Board, and to graduate students according to guidelines of the governing boards.

—Two statements concerning community colleges: "The Board of Higher Education will approve construction of new facilities for public community college campuses on the basis of enrollments, taking all permanent space and projected enrollment increases and decreases into account;" and —Deletion of the recommendation which said: "The Board of Higher Education will not recommend state participation in the purchase of movable equipment for public community colleges."

YOUNG MAN INJURED
Larry Reulecke, 21, Collinsville, was injured in an auto accident and went to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday for treatment of a nosebleed and an injury to his right elbow. X-rays were taken and he was released following treatment.

Two offenses added to Granite City crime code

Ordinances establishing two new offenses in the city's criminal code were enacted by the Granite City Council Monday night.

The new laws will permit police to file charges of reckless conduct and of intimidation under city laws, a procedure by which the city will receive fines assessed in the courts in such cases.

City Attorney George Filcott noted that the city ordinances approved Monday night are identical to the state law under which such charges have been filed in the past. Because they previously were filed under state laws, fines in such cases went to the county instead of the city.

The ordinance prohibiting reckless conduct states that "a person who causes bodily harm to or endangers the bodily safety of an individual by any means commits reckless conduct if he performs recklessly the acts which cause the harm or endanger safety, whether they are otherwise lawful or unlawful."

Any person violating the act may be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100 for each violation.

The bill prohibiting intimidation provides that such an offense occurs when a person, attempts to cause another to perform or to omit the performance of any act by communicating a threat.

That act also carries a penalty of from $25 to $100 for each violation.

John Eversole dies in Phoenix

John H. Eversole, 65, of 121 W. Berridge Lane, Phoenix, Ariz., who resided here briefly some years ago, died Tuesday at a Phoenix hospital.

He had been in ill health about one year and was hospitalized four days.

Mr. Eversole, a retired attorney general of the State of Arizona. He was a native of Illinois and a member of the First Christian Church of Phoenix. He had lived in Arizona about 33 years. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lois (Kaltenbach) Eversole; and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ann Kaltenbach of Phoenix, formerly of Granite City.

Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. Friday at the First Christian Church in Phoenix, with interment at a cemetery there.

Hearing Saturday

The Pontoon Beach Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an on-site public hearing at 10 a.m. Saturday at 3034 Lake Street, where Terrell Johnson is seeking a special use permit for a beauty shop. After the hearing, the zoning board will make a recommendation to the Pontoon Beach Village Board whether the permit should be granted.

Car hits house

A mother and her son were injured when their car swerved to avoid another auto on Route 203 at Union Avenue, west of control in snow and struck a stop sign and the home of John Pilcic, 4604 Nameoki Road.

Mrs. Jacqueline Tidwell, 776 Carolina Blvd., Mitchell, the driver, said she was northbound on Route 203 when another car pulled out too far from Union Avenue, stopping on the pavement.

After her auto struck the house, the other car drove away without the driver leaving his name.

Mrs. Tidwell suffered minor injuries which did not require hospital treatment. Her son, John Nishke III, 4, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for a fractured left shoulder. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Woman is hurt

Mrs. Mary Gillison, 21, of 2400 Washington Ave., was injured when her car and the auto of Michael Hayden, 813 Third St., Venice, were involved in an accident on snow at Washington Avenue and 23rd Street at 1:20 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Gillison suffered pain to her neck and to her head, which struck her car's steering wheel. X-rays were taken and she was released from St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Sanganois area hunters' haven

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles on Illinois state parks and memorials.

By JOAN MURARO

BROWNING — Sanganois Conservation Area, one of the few state-owned refuge and public hunting areas along the Illinois River, basically is a hunting site, short on many recreational facilities but long on picturesque names. Embracing a sprawl of bottomlands, sloughs, bays and flats, it offers such hunting and fishing locales as Eagle Slough, Hog Slough, Crow Hole, McKay Flats, Bach Slough, Cuba Island, Topper's Hole and Ash Swale. The area lies chiefly in southwestern Mason County and northwestern Cass County, though one small portion spreads over into Schuyler County. There is a check station and major access area located a mile and a half northeast of Browning off Ill. Rt. 100, with another access off Ill. Rt. 78, on the east side of the region, about 11 miles northeast of Chanderville. This is only open during deer season. The best public access is by boat.

Before the state of Illinois became involved in the region it already had been developed into a series of private duck clubs. It was from the largest of these, the Sanganois Gun Club, that the present conservation area derives its name. The club, which contained 2,700 acres, was purchased in 1946 and additional purchases in 1967, 1964 and 1970 raised the total acreage to the present 8,534. This includes approximately 1,500 acres under water. The other 6,984 are largely bottomlands and timber, though 260 acres are in croplands.

The backwater lakes, timbered ponds, sloughs and bottomlands are grown up largely in willow, maple and cottonwoods, while corn, sorghum and wheat are planted on Knapp and Cuba islands to feed migrating waterfowl. Approximately 1,000 acres are behind levees where water levels can be controlled by pumps. Levels are drawn down in summer, the area is planted in millet and is flooded in the fall for waterfowl use. Most of the waterfowl hunting takes place in these areas, which contain roughly 50 marked blind sites. Though Sanganois conservation area is managed primarily to protect, develop and manage the lands and waters of the region to provide both a refuge for migratory waterfowl and a public duck hunting area, it also is open for upland game and forest game hunting. Though populations may vary because of sporadic flooding of the area, during normal years there usually is good hunting for squirrel, raccoon and deer, with fair to poor harvests of rabbit and quail. There are large numbers of rough fish such as carp, buffalo, catfish and bullheads commercially caught and sold usually from the waters of the area, while sport fishermen enjoy good fishing for bass, crappie and bass in the summer and fall months. There is an unimproved boat ramp and boat harbor at the creek station. There are no boat rentals available. Blinds for waterfowl hunting are allotted by the state conservation department on a biannual basis, through drawings. Blinds not claimed by their hunters at least one hour before opening shooting hours each day are assigned by drawing to other hunters and hunters must be in the blinds within one hour of registering at the check station. Hunters leaving their blinds must report to the check station within one hour, to pick up licenses and report the check bagged. Upland and forest game hunting is limited to bows and arrow and shotgun and is only in those areas posted as open for hunting.

Additional information on hunting regulations, hours and seasons can be obtained from the refuge manager, or from the state conservation department, division of information and education, state office building, Springfield, Ill. 62769.

Court ruling aids some lawmakers

By KEN WATSON

SPRINGFIELD — A precedent-setting ruling by a U.S. Appeals Court panel is certain to have an immediate and long-range impact on Illinois state government and politics. From a long-range viewpoint it may determine whether the Illinois legislature purge the Illinois legislature of corrupt members and to elevate state government in general to a higher level of morality eventually will succeed or fail.

From a more immediate viewpoint it may be a major influence in determining whom Illinois voters choose as their next governor. A three-judge panel of the United States Court of Appeals has ruled that the federal government cannot use the voting records, speeches, and other official conduct of state legislators as evidence of wrongdoing.

The ruling was issued in the case of an Illinois legislator, who was indicted along with two others in 1974 on charges of shaking down rental car companies through use of the "fletcher" bill technique. A "fletcher" bill is one that is introduced with the intention of attracting bribe money from some companies or industry, which would face added business costs or other disadvantageous to the bill become law.

A payoff to the bill's sponsor or sponsors usually results in its abandonment. The practice long has been recognized as a sordid part of the legislative process. But prosecutions and convictions are difficult and rare.

The appeals panel ruling held that the guarantee written into the United States Constitution protecting congressmen from being prosecuted for actions taken in Congress also extends to state legislators.

But the ruling also is deemed equally significant in that it appears to be a rebuke to the trend of recent years in which federal attorneys have been moving into lower levels of government to prosecute state officers, legislators and prominent city officials, such as has been the case in Chicago.

In the case of lawmakers, if U.S. prosecutors are unable to use their voting records as trial evidence, then the chances of obtaining convictions are measurably diminished.

However, there has been growing resentment in political and government circles across the country to this increasing federal role. Many will welcome the appeal panel ruling and hope that it will discourage future federal efforts. The situation is especially sensitive in Illinois, where the favored candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, James R. Thompson, advanced to political prominence through successful prosecutions of a number of important politicians.

As U.S. prosecutor at Chicago, Thompson convicted such political notables as former Gov. Otto Kern, former Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett and Chicago Alderman Tom Keane, regarded as Mayor Richard J. Daley's top man in the Chicago City Council and as a key political aide.

Some important, if lesser known Republican politicians, were included among the 259 convictions scored by Thompson during his Chicago tenure.

Although Thompson's success did advance him to political prominence, it remains to be seen whether it will prove a true vote-getting asset in the primary — and if he is successful there, in the fall campaign.

It would be unfortunate for the cause of good government if the Appeals Court ruling should lead to the lessening of efforts to root out government corruption wherever it exists.

In Illinois the question remains: Will government corruption be an issue in the 1976 campaign and, if so, in what fashion?

Speech contest series to include South meet

Nearly 1,000 of the state's secondary school students will participate in the organized oral argument which, in the setting of interscholastic competition, provides participants an opportunity to display their skills of oral persuasion, logical reasoning, research and application of evidence and extemporaneous delivery before a critical judge.

The topic to be debated in this year's speech competition is "Resolved: That the development and allocation of scarce world resources should be controlled by an international organization."

In the speech series, state team champions are determined in individual events (points earned by a school from all its participants in the events included in this category), readers theater, dramatics and debate.

Individual state champions are also crowned in each of the 11 individual events.

CHS South and North will be among 20. Homewood-Flossmoor nipped South Holland (Thorndood) by one point (21-20) to take the team individual event title last year, and also captured the dramatics crown with a performance of "Blood Wedding." Delton (Thorndood) took the readers theater title in an overwhelming fashion with a reading of "Hour of Mystery." Radio Show of the 1930s. The tandem of Geri Redican and Hugh Bachman brought Harvey (Thorndood) the debate honor. A total of 47 schools scored points at the state speech contest last year in individual events.

Bubblemasters invite public to annual ball

The sixth annual ball and buffet, sponsored by the Bubblemasters Diving Club of Granite City, will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 21 at the Croatian Home, 1000 Madison Ave., Madison.

Plans for the event will be finalized at the diving club's regular business meeting at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, at the Civil Defense Building, 1411 Nineteenth St.

Larry Earney, Bubblemasters president, said the annual ball is open to the public. Tickets and information may now be obtained by calling Paula Depew, entertainment chairman, at 877-3284, or Sharon Earney, at 877-5066.

Admission will cost $8 per person and includes a buffet supper, set-ups, snacks and beer. Many gifts will be awarded patrons during the event, Earney said. Music for dancing will be provided by "Blue Sunshine" of St. Louis.

In charge of arrangements for this year's ball, with Mrs. Depew and Mrs. Earney, are Vance and Elva Jean Weiss, Bill and Mary Brannan, Kelley Earney, Fred and Terri Finazzo, Eldon Depew, Ken and Diane Simon and Kent and Paula Speers.

A tentative dive schedule will be presented to club members at Sunday's meeting, Earney said. The group's formal diving program starts in May, but two excursions to the Florida Keys are planned by the club in late February and March, he added. All Bubblemasters' meetings are open to persons interested in diving, including those wishing to learn skin and scuba diving, the club officer said.

Madison Ladies Democrat Club elects

Mrs. Minnie Brown was elected president of the Madison Ladies Democrat Club at a meeting Monday evening at the Sportsman's Club in Madison. She succeeds Mrs. Mary Rogenski.

Also named to office for 1976-77 were: Mrs. Rogenski, vice president; Mrs. Winnie Sasyk, secretary; Mrs. Christine Green, treasurer; Mrs. Joann Wilkins, chaplain; and Mrs. Sue Miller, marshal. Trustees chosen were Mrs. Ida Dant, Mrs. Wilkins and Mrs. Catherine Hakkarainen. Installation of officers will take place at a March 1 dinner meeting. Reservations will be accepted by Mrs. Miller at 876-9085. Guests may be invited to the affair, club officers advised.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk

addressed club members, commending the group for its cooperation with the city and urging its support in the March 16 primary election.

Mrs. Rogenski opened the meeting with the pledge of allegiance and prayer was offered by Mrs. Elizabeth Winnick, chaplain.

Donations were authorized to the Good Fellowship Club of Madison and to the Madison Junior Service Club for the March of Dimes drive.

Mrs. Julia Goclan reported a few Bicentennial neckties still remain for sale by the club and may be purchased at $2 each by calling 876-9789.

The club's Bicentennial Parade committee reported meeting at the home of Mrs. Sasyk with members of the Madison Ladies City Organization. Each group will sponsor two entries in the July 3 parade and also participate in other activities planned in the City of Madison.

Mrs. Rogenski said persons interested in helping in the parade project may contact her for further details.

Revisions in the bylaws were discussed and members were informed that club membership cards shortly will be distributed.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Hakkarainen and Mrs. LaVerne Harris, who served refreshments to those named and to Christine Green,

'Pop-Pretzel' concert reset Monday at North

The third annual "Pop and Pretzel" concert of Granite City High School North Band has been rescheduled for 8 p.m. Monday in the cafeteria at North High School. The public is invited to attend.

Inclement weather earlier this week forced postponement of the concert until Monday, Robert D. Todoroff, North band director, said today.

The popular "Pop and Pretzel" presentation will feature the 15-member North High Concert Band under the direction of Todoroff.

Members of the Steel City Belles Pom Pom Squad will serve soda and pretzels during the concert, repeating their participation of the past two years.

Admission to the event is by season ticket or a $1 charge for adults, 50 cents for students and 10 cents for band students at the door.

Tickets for soda at 15 cents per cup also may be obtained at the door. Pretzels are furnished free of charge by the North Band Parents Association.

A wide variety of music, reflecting scores on the lighter side, will be performed at Monday's concert.

Selections will include "A Broadway Show Stoppers" overture; selections from "Hawaii"; "An Original Dixieland Concerto," featuring a six-piece Dixieland band; "Trumpet Concerto," presented by a trumpet quartet accompanied by band; "The Four Horsemen," a rudimental percussion ensemble; a suite from the movie, "Jaws"; and a swing version of "Chopsticks."

Still beautiful, despite inflation

By KEN ZUMWALT
VENICE — This is a nice place to visit but I don't think I could afford to retire here. Writer Ernest Hemingway, who was rather wealthy, might have gotten by with the high prices, but Col. Richard Cantwell, his fictional hero in

"Across the River and Into the Trees," never would have made it. When the novel was published in 1950, one could have managed to live well in this beautiful city atop islands in the Adriatic Sea in northeastern Italy.

If you recall the story, Col. Cantwell had just been busted from brigadier general and assigned to the post-World War II occupation duty with the 8th Infantry Division in Trieste. He and his driver drove to Venice and parked their Buick at the municipal garage near the railroad station. They loaded their bags on a launch that resembled a speedboat and paid the skipper 3,500 lire. Today that ride costs 15,000 lire. A vaporetto, a sort of a ferryboat, which was also mentioned in Hemingway's novel, then cost 60 lire. Today it is 300 lire, or about 60 cents, which is probably the best buy here if you don't mind sharing the ride with 75 to 100 pushing and shoving Venetians. The picturesque gondolas range from 4,000 to 5,000 lire for a two-hour tour of the city that boasts of 200 canals. Col. Cantwell stayed at the Gritti Palace Hotel and did his drinking there and at nearby Harry's Bar. Reservations during the summer months are hard to come by at the Gritti and it is always standing room only at Harry's. We managed to get reservations at the Hotel Europa-Britannica, a sister hotel of the Gritti. Like the Gritti Palace, the Europa-Britannica fronts on the Grand Canal. A beautifully decorated, high-ceilinged room overlooking the water is just under $100 per night.

That includes a black-and-white television set with four channels, all in Italian, and a small office-type refrigerator stocked with miniature bottles of Scotch, vodka, gin and mixes, including soda water and Coca-Cola, and a continental breakfast.

At one point in the novel, Cantwell observed that he felt he could make it on retirement pay "by eating in good cheap joints." I was only able to find the expensive ones. But prices are high everywhere, so you really can't fault Venice.

I recall that the lira was about 600 to the dollar when I was here 20 years ago. American Express gave me 640 to the dollar this time. I fully expected to find part of Venice underwater, or, at least, to note a muddy waterline along the base of the Basilica di San Marco. I had been reading in recent years how the city — which dates to the year 1000 — was sinking into the Adriatic. But quite the contrary, it is high and dry and, according to Vittorio Vittori, head of the Venice National Research Center, actually appears to be rising.

This turnaround is the result of a 10-year campaign to cap the thousands of artesian wells in the city. To replace the wells, water is piped in from the mainland. However, flood tides still roar into the Piazza San Marco every few months and are a threat to artworks and architecture. But who really cares about waterlines — or too high prices — when there is so much beauty to be seen.

TAX FACTS Part-year employee gets break

Q. I work as a consultant and am paid a high salary for only a few months of work each year. Yet my taxes are withheld at a rate as though I were employed the entire year. Is there any way I can reduce the amount of tax withheld? — M. V. B.

A. Yes. If you are a part-year employee, you may qualify for reduced withholding under the part-year withholding method. You must make a written request to your employer to withhold taxes from your salary by the part-year method. In that request you must state: 1) that you anticipate no more than $30,000 gross income from all sources this tax year; and 2) that you will have no more than 245 days of continuous employment. Contact Taxpayer Service at your nearest IRS office to make sure you qualify.

Q. Is unemployment compensation taxable? — S. L. K.

A. Whether your unemployment compensation is taxable depends on the source. Social Security benefits, paid monthly or in a lump sum from the federal government or a state under the federal program, are not taxable. If you are receiving benefits from a state under the Federal Unemployment Trust Fund, it is not taxable. If you were a federal employee and receive unemployment compensation, it is not taxable. Payments by a state to a state employee, not covered by the state's unemployment compensation laws, under a collective bargaining agreement and comparable to those under the state's compensation laws, are taxable. Unemployment benefits from a fund to which you contributed voluntarily, whether union or nonunion-established, are taxable to the extent they exceed the amount contributed. Supplemental unemployment benefits received from a company-financed supplemental fund are taxable, as are such benefits received directly from an employer.

Q. Is it true that I can deduct finance charges paid on my bank charge account? — S. N. S.

A. Yes. You can deduct interest such finance charges provided no part of the charge is a service charge, loan fee, credit investigation fee or other similar charge.

Dog's death is council issue

An investigation will be made into charges before the City Council Monday night that a dog owned by a Granite City couple was killed by a tranquilizer gun used by a humane officer, and that the dog was not the one actually sought on a complaint that had been filed with the officers. Mayor Paul Schuler told the Press-Record.

The charges were made by Mrs. Bonnie Wickham, 2026 Cleveland Blvd., in a letter co-signed by her husband, Herbert Wickham, which said that the family's dog, Jason, was killed by a tranquilizer projectile. She said she was told at the Animal Shelter that the dark strack dog too near the heart, causing its death.

Mrs. Wickham said neither

she nor her husband were notified that the dog was dead and that they learned of it after a neighbor went to the animal shelter for her to learn whether the dog had been picked up. She said the dog wore a collar with tags, including one that gave the name and address of the owner.

Alderman William Dallas, chairman of the council's Sanitation Committee, told the aldermen that "a call was made to pick up a dog and they picked up the wrong dog."

She and her husband then went to the animal shelter, she said, "to identify the body of our dog." She said, "The explanation given was that Jason was shot too close to her heart with the tranquilizer and it killed her.

"A check with a vet, however, revealed that had the proper dosage of tranquilizer been used, Jason should not have died no matter where she was hit on her body."

Dallas charged that he has received complaints of the humane officers attempting to coax a dog to a fence from within its yard.

"I have brought this up before and I would still like to know why the dogcatchers cannot call an owner when a dog is picked up if the dog has identifying tags on it. In two months time I had 18 to 20 calls of this type.

"We have six men down there (at the animal shelter) and yet we are billed every month for overtime. It seems to me they could rotate their hours without any trouble.

"I think they should be talked to. And I don't mean just a slap on the wrist. I said to one of them once that maybe they didn't like their job, and he said to me, 'Why don't you take it?'"

Alderman Warren Decatur said he also had received a complaint about the case involving the Wickham's dog, and that he also had a complaint from a woman who lives in the 2600 block of Benton Street.

"She told me that she took her dog on a leash into Wilson Park and that a humane officer told her he was going to shoot her dog if she didn't keep it out of the park. I talked to Harold Brown (superintendent of parcs) and he told me that he did not want the humane officers in the park unless he called for them, and that there were no objections to people walking their dogs in the park.

"If these men don't like animals any better than some of them apparently do, then I think we had better get rid of some of them."

Thomas Wofford, Granite City humane officer, said he had no comment concerning the letter or the remarks to the council by Dallas.

Mayor Schuler said he plans to investigate the complaints and that "maybe we'll have to get rid of that tranquilizer gun entirely."

The council Monday night also authorized total expenses of $75 to permit Chief of Police Ronald Veizer and two members of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners to attend a workshop of the Police Service Bureau of the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police at Springfield the latter part of this month.

Also approved were expenses of $185 for Officer Friendly Glenn Wright to attend the Great Central Area Explorers' Conference at Kansas City, Mo., later this month.

A group of Weebles of Parkview School attended the council meeting Monday night under supervision of Art Menendez to help them qualify for their citizenship badges.

Three bids received for installation of Opti-Com equipment at signal lights in the city's principal intersections were referred back to the committee for further study. Bids included those of Rite Electric Co., $20,946; R. Dron Electrical Co., $19,842; and Welsbach Co. of St. Louis, $19,885.

Gets 4 years in Venice robbery

Vernon E. Dillon, 37, St. Louis, has been sentenced in Madison County Circuit Court to serve four years in prison for armed robbery.

Dillon pleaded guilty Jan. 15 to the robbery of the Venice Liquor Store, 324 Broadway, Venice, Nov. 23, 1974. Two armed men entered the store and one allegedly fired a shot at a woman clerk.

Venice police chased the suspect's car to National City, arresting the driver when the car stopped. Dillon, who allegedly jumped out, was arrested by National City police within one hour of the robbery.

The actual sentence, pronounced by Circuit Judge Moses Harrison, was four years to four years and one day. Also in Madison County Circuit Court, Thomas "Baz" York and his wife, Hazel "Connie" York, 1266a Madison Ave., Madison, pleaded guilty

Monday to one felony count of theft against each.

Madison County assistant state's attorney served a search warrant at the York home Nov. 15, 1975, and alleged confiscating eight citizens' band radios, a police scanner, an eight-track tape player and a rifle. Some of the items allegedly were stolen.

The couple is to be sentenced

March 5.

The court also accepted guilty pleas from Jerry Nishke, 30, Valley Park, Mo., and Henry E. Murphy, 23, of Rural Route One, Box 1254, Granite City, to burglary.

The pair allegedly entered the home of Mildred Brown, 2333 Clark Ave., Oct. 28, 1975, and were arrested nearby after officers alleged their arrival halted the burglary.

"They are to be sentenced Feb. 19.

Voter registration for deaf scheduled

The Cahokia Chapter of the Illinois Association of the Deaf will sponsor a voters registration drive in Madison and St. Clair counties, in cooperation with the county clerks of each county.

A registration session will take place Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Pontoon Beach Village Hall, 3839 Lincoln Ave., Pontoon Beach. Mrs. Mary Lou Hudson of Granite City will interpret for the deaf who would like to register in all the special programs.

Those registering must be 18 years of age, have lived in Illinois for the past 30 days and at their current address also for 30 days. Registration concludes

Feb. 16.

Sessions also are planned Friday from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Farmers' Merchant Bank in Highland; Saturday from 10 a.m. until noon, Roxana Village Hall; Fire Department Building, and from 5 to 7 p.m. Friday, Feb. 13, at the Voters Registration Center, 37 Illinois Ave., Belleville.

The Cahokia Chapter also is planning to sponsor a St. Louis Deaf Drama Guild appearance in Granite City. Information concerning the chapter's program, registration drive or other projects may be obtained by writing to Leon Hudson, 74 Shirwin Drive, Granite City, Ill. 62040.

Governor candidates in area during weekend

The two major Democratic candidates for Illinois governor will be in this area in the next few days to greet the voters. Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for governor, will be the speaker at a dinner Sunday, honoring State Representatives Sam W. Wolf (D-Granite City) and Joe Lucio (D-Edwardsville), both of whom are seeking nominations for re-election.

State Rep. William Redmond, speaker of the Illinois House, also will attend the event.

The dinner will be in the Meridian Ballroom of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

It is sponsored by the Democratic Organization of Madison County.

Friday evening, the incumbent Governor, Dan J. Walker, will speak at the TePee Youth Center, 720 W. Main St., Collinsville in another of his "emphatic debates."

Since Howlett has declined to debate Walker face-to-face, Walker is using an empty chair beside him to symbolize Howlett's absence. Walker supporters say Howlett has been invited to attend Friday's "debate," which will begin at 8 p.m.

About 150 to 175 persons are expected to attend the talk, which is open to the public.

"Mexican Cookery - One" was the subject of a major lesson given Tuesday afternoon for Trio Unit members of the Madison County Homemakers Extension Association.

Twenty-four members and three guests, Mrs. Helen Miller, Mrs. Edna Bono and Mrs. Pauline Cox, met for the session at Hope Lutheran Church.

Discussing the art of Mexican cookery were Mrs. Louise Smith and Mrs. Joanna Spencer, who gave practical demonstrations in preparing various dishes and offered fellow club members an opportunity to sample the results. The speakers also distributed recipes.

A dessert course was served later by Mrs. Ruth Brave, Mrs. Marge O'Neill and Mrs. Flossie Davis, hostesses.

Mrs. Ellen Ozanich, unit chairman, was in charge of the business meeting. Included among the reports were plans for the annual meeting of the Illinois Homemakers Extension Association, scheduled March

The health-safety lesson, presented by Mrs. Bea Rittenhouse, concerned preventive actions against common colds, influenza and pneumonia. "Those Old Times Again" was her topic.

Mrs. Miller was enrolled as a new member, bringing the unit's total membership to 53, and it was agreed to postpone a white elephant auction until the April meeting.

Prizes at games were won by Mrs. Vivian Forshee, Mrs. Clara Schillinger and Mrs.

In Memory of P.F.C. GENE E. CHEPELY February 6, 1966 died from wounds suffered in Viet Nam God's golden gate stood open On that unhappy day With farewells left unspoken, He quietly passed away. God saw that he was tired, and knew he needed rest. God's garden must be beautiful He only takes the best. Sadly missed by Betty Ann, Russell, Children and All Who Loved Him 33 2 5

In Loving Memory of JEFFREY WAYNE MURRAY February 6, 1971 We often sit and think of him when we are all alone. In Memory of Our Mother MARY MILTON on her birthday February 5
Gone from this land of sorrow, Gone from the tears and pain, Gone to a land of tomorrow, She's gone but not forgotten. She left us sad and lonely. To mourn and weep for her. Debra Collins wins opera audition Deborah Hightower Collins, 4029 Gaslight Walk, Granite City, is the first place winner of the Southern Illinois area Metropolitan Opera audition competition held during the weekend at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Mrs. Collins is a soprano.

A graduate of SIUE in 1974, Mrs. Collins has continued her study in voice performance with Dale Moore, a former member of the SIUE music faculty. To capture first place in the auditions, Mrs. Collins performed Je suis en cor tout étourdi from the opera Manon by Massenet and Clascun to die from the opera La Figlia del Reggimento by Donizetti.

Mrs. Collins is no stranger to the competition. Last year, she took third place in a field of 17 entrants.

David Doyle, tenor, and a graduate student at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, won second place. Doyle sang E la solita storia del pastore from the opera L'Arlésiana by Cilea and La fleur que tu m'avais jetée from the opera Carmen by Bizet. A resident of Carbondale, Doyle studies with Dan Presley of the SIUE music faculty.

Third place was won by Paula Flemons, a soprano from East St. Louis. Miss Flemons is a senior at SIUE studying with Mrs. Sheila Dugan, a member of the SIUE music faculty. She performed Durch Zärtlichkeit from the opera Die Entführung aus dem Serail by Mozart and Steal Me from the opera The Old Maid and the Thief by Menotti. Brenda Lualdi, a mezzo-soprano from Herrin, was awarded fourth place in the competition. Miss Lualdi, graduate student at SIUE, studies with Mrs. Mary Elaine Wallace, a member of the SIUE music faculty.

Fifth place was taken by Leslie McEwen, a soprano from Crownsville, Md. Miss McEwen, an undergraduate attending SIUE, also studies with Mrs. Wallace. For the audition, she sang Stridone lasso from the opera Pagliacci by Leoncavallo and Deh vieni, non tardar from the opera Le Nozze di Figaro by Mozart. Nineteen vocalists were entered in the competition, which was co-sponsored by the SIUE music department and the Friends of Music of SIUE. The five winners in the competition will now advance to the Midwest regional competition to be held in Chicago, Feb. 24 and 25.

Three contestants are usually chosen from the field of entrants, but the quality of the voice competition was so great this year, it was decided that five winners would be chosen, according to William Tarwater, chairman of the SIUE music department.

'Anything Goes' to be given at SIUE Theater

Cole Porter's hit musical "Anything Goes" will be presented by the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville department of theater and dance, Feb. 19, 20 and 21 and 8:15 p.m., and Feb. 22 at 2:30 p.m. in the SIUE Communications Building theater.

The show is filled with the singing, dancing, color and spectacle that brings to life the memories of the musical spectaculars of Hollywood and Ziegfeld.

The setting for the action is aboard the S. S. American, sailing from New York to England.

According to Al Wiltz, director and choreographer of the play and a member of the SIUE faculty of theater and dance, the audience will be entertained with "a lively mixture of interaction between passengers, such as conspiracy, conflict, and, of course, romance."

Wiltz, who recently studied dance with Erick Hawkins and Merce Cunningham, in New York, added, "Anything Goes" combines the style of "Little Mary Sunshine" and dancing of "West Side Story."

The production will bring to the SIUE stage the songs made famous by the original Broadway production, including "It's De-Lovely; I Got a Kick Out of You; Blow, Blow, Public Enemy No. 1; Let's Misbehave; Take Me Back To Manhattan; Friendship, and Anything Goes."

The show's musical director is Steve Brown, a member of the SIUE faculty, a pianist, composer and one-time dresser for Walter Matthau during the performance of "The Odd Couple."

The conductor for the production is Janet Scott, SIUE music instructor, whose credits include performances at Carnegie Hall, the St. Louis Symphony, the St. Louis Muny Opera, the St. Louis Opera Theater, and the Mississippi Valley Opera Company.

The costume designer for the performance is Charles Sweeney, who received acclaim from the New Times for his effective "scenery and equally, fetching costumes" in the Carlo Goldoni comedy, "The Servant of Two Masters."

Leading characters in the musical include: Martha Travers, playing the role of Reno Sweeney; Kevin Hofeditz, playing the role of Billy Crocker; and Ken Lee, playing the part of Moonface Martin, "public enemy number 13."

Miss Travers's recent summer stock credits include appearances in productions of the St. Louis Muny Opera. Hofeditz's performance work at SIUE has included roles in 11 productions. Lee's experience in the theater includes several productions, and he will be directing J. B., a play by Archibald Macleish, at the University in April.

Ticket prices for each performance will be: $2 for adults; $1 for high school students; $1.50 for senior citizens and groups of more than 20; and 50 cents for children under 12 years of age.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL

Rodney Reed, 22, Collinsville, was injured in an auto accident near Edwardsville early this week and was brought by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital. He said he struck his head on his car's windshield and lost consciousness for a period. X-rays were taken and he was admitted to the hospital.

Graduate awards at SIUE

Applicants are being sought for a number of special graduate awards available for economically disadvantaged minority individuals who are residents of the St. Louis metropolitan area, with higher priority given to residents of the Illinois portion, according to an announcement by the Graduate School of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The awards provide a tax-free stipend of $275 per month and a remission of tuition for the academic year. David G. Brown, acting assistant dean of the Graduate School, said the intent of the special awards is to encourage further training for individuals who, because of their financial or economic situation, would not normally continue their education beyond the baccalaureate level.

"The Graduate School anticipates that the awards will aid in the identification and motivation of financially and culturally deprived students and the stimulation of their educational pursuits," Brown said.

Last year, 20 such awards were given by the Graduate School to degree-seeking students in accounting, art, behavioral science, counselor education, instructional technology, marketing, music, philosophy, psychology, sociology, special education and speech pathology and audiology.

"These graduate awards provide a valuable experience for individuals of the metropolitan area and directly contribute to increasing the number of skilled and competent individuals committed to urban development, social involvement and human reconciliation," Brown said.

Applicants should be a member of a federally recognized minority group and be prepared to initiate or continue graduate studies on a full-time basis. Each applicant must file a financial statement for evaluation by the College Scholarship Service, for which there is a $4 fee. Successful applicants must be able to meet the requirements for admission to the Graduate School and the specific department in which they wish to study.

Interested individuals may secure additional information and application forms at the Graduate School Office, located in Room 2202 of the General Office Building at SIUE. The deadline for receipt of all application materials is March 5. Successful applicants will be informed by May 1, Brown said.

Nancy Kinder named 'leader of tomorrow'

Nancy J. Kinder has been named Granite City High School South's 1976 Betty Crocker Family Leader of Tomorrow. Miss Kinder won the honor by scoring high in a written knowledge and attitude examination administered to high school seniors here and throughout the country Dec. 2. Encyclopedia Britannica Educational Corp. will present "The Annals of America," a 20-volume reference work, to the state winner's school.

Representing every state and the District of Columbia, the 51 family leaders of tomorrow, together with their faculty advisors, will gather in Washington, D. C., in April for an expense-paid educational tour of the capital city.

During the tour, personal observations and interviews are conducted to select the all-American family leader of tomorrow, recipient of a $5,000 college scholarship. Second, third and fourth place winners receive scholarships increased to $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000.

The test, personal observations and interviews are all prepared and conducted by Science Research Associates of Chicago.

St. Peter's women, girls dinner

The annual women and girls dinner held Monday evening at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ, this year featured a Bicentennial theme in the table appointments and program.

About 120 women and girls attended the event, sponsored by the Afternoon and Evening guilds of the church.

Welcoming remarks were made by Mrs. Arline Brinkmeyer, Afternoon Guild president, and Mrs. Bea Rittenhouse, president of the Evening Guild.

In keeping with the Bicentennial theme, several antique items, such as a coffee grinder and dishes, were displayed on a special table.

A stirring selection of patriotic songs, together with popular melodies of the 1950s, '60s and '70s and comedy routines, was performed by the Madrigal Singers of Granite City High School, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Ann Bright, vocal music instructor.

Mrs. Louise Favier, program chairman, also introduced Scott Buenger, 13, who presented a magic show featuring sleight-of-hand tricks.

Polls unreliable—Howlett

Michael J. Howlett, a candidate for governor in the March 16 Democratic primary, during the weekend warned his followers to be wary of polls which indicate he is leading his opponent.

Howlett spoke at the annual Franklin D. Roosevelt Birthday dinner sponsored by the Illinois Democratic State Central Committee at Springfield.

"In 1948, polls and the opinions of political writers showed President Truman behind in his contest with Thomas E. Dewey. In 1976, polls and opinions of political writers indicate I am running ahead of my opponent."

"But I take to heart what President Truman thought of polls. So should we all. Here is what he said:

"These polls are like sleeping pills designed to lull the voters into sleeping on Election Day. You might call them sleeping pills."

President Truman said Dewey handed out sleeping pills. He compared Dewey to a doctor who would tell his patients not to worry, just take a pill and go to sleep.

"President Truman's opponent woke up on Election Day with the after-effects of an overdose of lullaby pills. Polls don't vote. We will win on March 16, and again in November, but it will take hard work. This is no time for relaxation or reliance on polls."

"The 1948 polls were not the first or last to go wrong. In 1936, the Literary Digest poll said Landon would beat Franklin D. Roosevelt. Landon carried only two states."

"Only a few weeks ago, the Harris and Gallup polls—both respected national surveys—came up with opposite readings on whether or not Hubert Humphrey could beat President Ford or Ronald Reagan."

"It's a warming feeling to hear that polls are on our side; but it would be a fatal error to depend on them."

"In this campaign we must win a primary first, then a general election, on issues. The issue in the race for governor in this primary is the record—my record of 15 years as a state officer and my opponent's record of three years."

"My record has earned me recognition for economy and efficiency—responsibility in budgeting and caution in spending."

"My opponent's record has identified him with irresponsible budgeting and the highest spending in Illinois history."

"But we must remember Franklin D. Roosevelt's advice that the Democratic party, by the logic of history, is the liberal party."

"We don't save the taxpayers money just to build a treasury but to make it available for the human needs of the people."

"We want to save money by sound administration so we will have more of it to improve the education of our children... to provide the best in mental, health care... to see that public safety is maintained by law, order and justice."

Marks 35th year at Illinois Bell

Donald B. Teaney, an Illinois Bell plant engineer in East St. Louis, observed his 35th anniversary with the Bell System last week.

A Granite City native, Teaney joined Southwestern Bell in East St. Louis as a cable splicer's helper in 1941. He also worked in the Granite City and Belleville areas and was promoted to cable splicing foreman in 1948. He became a facilities engineer at St. Louis in 1964 and returned to his present position in East St. Louis in 1964.

Teaney is a member of Elks Lodge 1063 in Granite City and Cahokia Council, Telephone Pioneers of America, the world's largest industrial employee organization dedicated to community service.

He and his wife, Lodie, live at 3139 Colgate Place. They have two daughters, Mrs. Cindy Varwig, of Affton, Mo., and Mrs. Donna Mundy, Florissant, Mo., and a son, Doug, at home, and three granddaughters.

HOUSE RANSACKED

The home of Nelson Crane, 2124 Cottage Ave., was ransacked, it was reported during the weekend. After ransacking the home, the burglars took several cans of vegetables. Entry was gained by breaking a window and reaching through to unlock a door.

Thompson proposes senior citizen centers

A statewide network of Illinois Action Centers to assist senior citizens in solving problems and also serve as a clearing house for information on programs that benefit the elderly was proposed by James R. Thompson, a Republican candidate for governor, during the weekend.

Thompson said that as governor he would support legislation to create the network of centers that would "supplement and work with local programs rather than supplant them."

Thompson said the centers would:

- Provide housing referral services and identify employment opportunities,
- specialized job counseling and educational programs available for senior citizens.

• Provide assistance to the elderly in filling out eligibility forms for benefit programs.

• Serve as a reference and referral center for persons in need of public assistance and health services, including in-home care.

Thompson, former United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, also said that wherever possible such centers should be staffed by senior citizens.

Rites Wednesday for Miss Thompson

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at a Granite City funeral home for Miss Gloria Jean Thompson, 40, who resided at the Professional Care Nursing Home, Troy.

She died at the nursing home at 11:45 p.m. Sunday.

Survivors include her father, Montford Thompson of Granite City; four brothers, Gerald, Richard and Donald Thompson and Butch Belmer, all of Granite City; three sisters, Mrs. Doris Burchan of Granite City, Mrs. Randall (Linda) Jennings of Paducah, Ky., and Mrs. Bob (Aleta) Maell of Madison.

Burial was in Holy Cross Lutheran Cemetery, Collinsville.

AUTO IS LOOTED

Items valued at more than $500 were stolen from the auto of Robert Whenden, Box 270, West Chain of Rocks Road, it was reported Thursday. A right side window of the car was broken to gain entry. Stolen were a citizens' band radio, a car stereo, a rifle, two fire extinguishers, three flashlights, a portable spotlight, an air pump, leather boots, rubber boots and a frying pan.

"Like the Foster-Grandparent program, we should be able to find an adequate number of senior citizens willing to volunteer their services to perform a meaningful function toward a legitimate and worthwhile goal," he said.

Thompson, 39, also called for constant review and re-evaluation of "circum-breakers" legislation intended to provide senior citizens on low incomes with a credit or grant for sales taxes on food and medicine.

In addition, Thompson said there should be an on-going review of legislation which increases and accelerates the homestead exemption and legislation designed to allow low-income senior citizens to defer payment of real estate taxes on non-income producing property.

"I believe our first undertaking should involve a complete reorganization of the executive branch of government to create a system in which comprehensive human services can be delivered in an effective and efficient manner," Thompson said.

Adding that the executive branch has not been streamlined in Illinois since 1917, Thompson said he would propose such a plan that would include developing a sophisticated, comprehensive and uniform inspection system for nursing homes that would be under the control of a single state department.

"It is clear to me from my travels throughout Illinois that an increasing number of our elderly are facing uncertainty, isolation and fear," Thompson said.

"In my judgement, it is time to end the political posturing over senior citizens and time to develop pragmatic solutions for the problems that exist."

"It's time to examine our budget to determine where funds are available and use them to generate a senior citizen initiative."

Supports gas deregulation

The steel industry strongly supported deregulation of the wellhead price of natural gas in testimony during the weekend before the Subcommittee on Energy and Power of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

The industry expressed support of the "initial move to deregulation" provided by Senate-passed S. 2310, and said this legislation is "recognition of the importance of the marketplace in making it possible to explore for and develop new natural gas supplies."

Spokesman for the steel industry was Harry Thomas, general manager - power, fuel and materials distribution, United States Steel Corp., and chairman of the American Iron and Steel Institute's Committee on Energy.

Thomas said the steel industry has an active program of conservation and of conversion to other fuels. However, he noted, there are certain critical uses which cannot use alternatives to natural gas.

"We firmly believe that the restoration of the free market will create development activities which will result in an increased supply of natural gas," Thomas said. "At the same time, the increased market price will restrain the growth of consumption and shift the gas usage to more efficient end uses."

Thomas urged government action that will "allow the jobs of American workers to be preserved and help continue our economic recovery."

Car strikes pole, driver injured

Mrs. Diana Cowley, 27, of 39 Fontainebleau Drive, Pontoon Beach, was injured when her car struck a utility pole on Route 80 a half mile north of Pontoon Beach this week.

Witnesses reported her car was northbound and she was making a U-turn when her car went out of control and struck the pole on the west side of the street.

She was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was examined for possible head injuries and was transferred to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis. She lost consciousness for a period following the accident.

Paul Hanks on college board

Gov. Dan Walker on Monday announced the appointment of Paul B. Hanks, former chairman of the Lewis and Clark Community College Board of Trustees, as a member of the Illinois Community College Board. Hanks, a resident of Hardin, Ill., submitted his resignation to the Lewis and Clark board of trustees last week. Hanks is married and has two children.

He is the owner of four funeral homes in Pike and Calhoun Counties. Hanks, 56, also owns a 450-acre cattle farm. He is the national president of the Red Poll Cattle Club of America.

Hanks is a 1941 graduate of the University of Illinois and also is a graduate of Blackburn Junior College and the St. Louis College of Mortuary Science. He replaces Key Brune on the board. Brune resigned as a board member in November 1975. Hanks' term expires on June 30, 1981. Senate confirmation is required.

Hanks is a director of the Bank of Calhoun County in Hardin and is chairman of the Calhoun County Health Department and the Tri-County Environmental Health Association.

He is a board member of the Tri-County Mental Health Association and a member of the Calhoun County Farm Bureau.

City cost squeeze noted by candidate

State government should be slow to impose new programs on local governments without providing the money to pay for them, Michael J. Howlett said Tuesday.

Howlett, a candidate for governor in the March 16 Democratic primary, addressed mayors of Chicago's southwest suburbs at a luncheon in Palos Park. It was organized by Fred M. Dumke, mayor of Oak Lawn and president of the Illinois Municipal League.

"The solvency of municipal government has been a worry since what has happened in New York," said Howlett. "City and village governments face inflation problems as serious as consumer inflation, or more so."

"We all want to protect the environment, but we must adjust our standards to meet the revenue coming in to do the job," Howlett said.

"The state guidelines for signals at street intersections are effective, but also expensive."

"We have come a long way from the day when motorists belched a swinging signal in the center of every intersection. We now have excellent signal lights from different vantage points. But a properly signalized intersection now costs $50,000 to $80,000."

"So many agencies of government operate at so many different levels, they are unable to keep track of what each other is doing."

"Government in this Bicentennial year employs more than 14 million people, five times as many as inhabited the United States in 1776."

"We shouldn't have different levels of government doing the same thing."

"As much as possible, we should handle government business at the local level."

"What can't be handled locally should be handled at the state level. What can't be handled at the state level should be handled by federal government.

"Our 1970 State Constitution should reduce overgovernment in Illinois. By fostering home rule, it enables cities to handle their own affairs."

"In government, as in business and in the home, we can remain solvent only if we live within our means."

"We don't spend more than we have. And we don't plan ahead to spend more than we see coming in."

"As governor, I will budget responsibly, and live within our appropriation, as I have for more than 15 years as state auditor of public accounts and secretary of state."

"And, I will administer state government to help local government, not to interfere with it," he concluded.

Now you can instruct the federal government to deposit your checks directly into a Madison County Federal insured savings account.

Avoid any possibility of lost or stolen checks. Save the time and trouble involved in depositing them yourself.

Many women candidates in state

Seventy-five women from Illinois are running for congressional, state and Chicago offices, the Illinois

Women's Political Caucus said this week.

In Illinois this year, five women are running for Congress, two for state-wide office, 11 for the Illinois Senate, 35 for the Illinois House of Representatives, 10 for judge, two for the Chicago Sanitary District and seven for Chicago ward committees, the largest number of women ever to have run for elected office in Illinois, it was noted.

To honor these women for helping to promote the greater participation of qualified women to elected offices, the Chicago and Illinois Women's Political Caucuses have planned a "Win with Women '76" campaign.

Those seeking Congressional offices include: Marilyn Clancy (D), 6th District; Cardiss Collins (D), 7th District; Marie Agnes Fess (D), 14th District; Ann Wall Scott (D), 21st District; Joanne Alter (D) and Joan Anderson (R) are both running for lieutenant governor in the primary balloting.

Among the 56th Legislative District candidates are Gertraude C. Wittig (R), Edwardsville, for the state senate, and Anita Kendall Eltimoff (D) and Eva Gittner McDonald (R) for state representative positions.

James Talley, 1804 Primrose, storm windows, $435; William Popovchak, 1414 Madison, remodel front of building, $8,000; Granite City Press-Record, 1815 Delmar, remodel front, $800; William Sage, 2825 Grand, overhang, $885; Dale Heiman, 2225 E. 23th, addition, $1,000; Sherwin Williams Paint Co., 3206 Nameoki, sign, no cost listed; Hancel Bailey, 1520 Clark, basement, $3,000; Steve Marlen, 3116 Jill, siding, $2,000, and Randall Viessman, 2119 Fourteenth, remodel and repair, $4,000.

Razing permits were granted in December to: William Valley, raise a four-room house at 2331 rear Dewey; Edward Brueggemann, raise a duplex at 1736-38 Delmar; Granite City Steel, raise four-room house at 1428 Washington, and a house at 1409 Washington, $1,000 each, and Harry Kohn, raise a garage at 2127 Grand Ave., for $50.

Although purchases of the 1976 Bicentennial plates are substantially ahead of sales at a corresponding time last year, there are thousands of motorists who have not purchased their new plates," Howlett said.

The 1976 plates are on sale over-the-counter at the three Motor Vehicle facilities in Chicago and two secretary of state facilities in Springfield, Centennial Building and Dirksen Parkway.

In addition, currency exchanges and over 400 financial institutions throughout the state are still selling plates. Last year approximately 30 per cent of all passenger plates were sold over-the-counter in the last two weeks before the deadline.

Mrs. Patsy Bax, 30, of 2017 Missouri Ave., was injured when her car and the auto of Raymond O'Dell, 3001 Sinclair Ave., were involved in an accident at 20th Street and Madison Ave., during the weekend.

O'Dell was charged with reckless driving after his auto allegedly skidded into the rear of the other auto, which was stopped for a left turn.

Mrs. Bax suffered a neck injury and was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital. X-rays were taken, a neck brace was applied and she was released.

January building $247,821

Seventeen building permits with values totaling $247,821, including three for new industrial or commercial projects, were issued by Granite City during January.

The permits included a $141,000 permit to construct a new Sambo's Restaurant on Nameoki Road at Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center, one for N.L. Industries (National Lead), 16th Street and Cleveland Boulevard, to construct a 69 by 80 foot metal building, at a total cost of $79,000, and one for Faye Greenberg to divide the former Original Granite City Flea Market, 3675 Nameoki Road, into several small shops at a cost of $4,750.

Other permits were for one new garage costing $3,000, 12 to remodel and repair houses at a total cost of $20,071, and one for a new sign.

Permits for razing buildings were issued to 23 persons, the highest number for any one month in recent years. The high number is partially because the city realized it had condemned and razed 17 buildings without obtaining permits, so permits were obtained in January, even though most of the buildings already have been razed.

Construction permits were issued in January to: Marvin Cornett, 1752 Venice Ave., enclosure carport, $3,600; Jim Broshaw, 2401 Jerden Ave., remodel, $300; Marvin Cooper, 2017 Clark Ave., new garage, $3,000; Charles York, 2433 Edwards, remodel, $2,280; Clara Schilling, 2223 Lynch, remodel, $1,491; Charles Hartline, 3814 Lake St., siding, $2,500; Ted Wasylak, 2313 Grand, roofing, $500; Amso Plumbing, 2401 Delmar, roofing, $800, and St. Elizabeth Church Rectory, 2301 Pontoon Road, roofing, $800.

Permits to raze buildings were granted to: Richard Buer, 2015 E. 20th, a three-room house; Jim Broshaw, 2401 Jerden, raze garage; the Leigh family, 1740-42 Chestnut, an eight-room house; Charles Holloway, 2818 Marshall, a four-room house; Albert Paul, 1004 Twenty-first, a four-room house; Jim Valicoff, 2215-17 Madison, a duplex, and Federal Housing Administration (FHA), 2511 E. 25th St., a house, for $849.

Permits granted for demolition of houses by the city were to: Elvin Simpson, 2022 W. 20th, Rosalee Dine, 2714 Harding, Wilson Norris, 2716 W. 20th, William Popovchak, 2002 W. 20th, Eleanor Antofit, 906 Niedringhaus, Eugene Roberts, 715 1/2 Twenty-sixth, Emil Damotte, 2133 Delaware, and Mary Krill, 1926 State.

Also, Robert Diltzer, 2428 Iowa, Joseph Wallace III, 2412 Nameoki, Lonzo Ray, 1920 Missouri, Steve Kosich, 2039 Thirteenth, Sharon Patrick, 2135 rear Lee, St. Peter Church, 2105 Cleveland, Frank Szymarek, 2010 Fourteenth, Arthur Reed, 1230 Granite, and an unknown owner of 2608 W. 20th.

The $247,821 total value of permits issued during January was more than double the $112,603 value of 24 permits issued the previous month. Permits in December included one for a new $25,000 home being constructed by Ron Bridick at 159 Princeton, and one to Illinois Bell Telephone Co. for a $17,696 addition at 22nd and Adams streets.

Other December permits were issued to: Cecil Steel Pipe Co., 2701 Highway 3, mobile home, $2,200; Sampson Nighoghossian, 921 Niedringhaus (Sammy's Tavern), remodel, $1,000; Geneva Wallis, 2524 Iowa, repairs, $1,850; Delmar Foote, 2501 Delmar, remodel, $974, and Ralph Collins, 3041 Willow, new garage, $1,500.

William Jenkins, 2158 State, new roof, $400, James Engelke, 1605 Lindell, room addition, $4,500, Gerald Shafer, 2501 E. 23rd, mobile home, $4,000; William Harrison, 728 Twenty-seventh Place, enclosure carport, $2,500; B. C. Gitcho (O.K. Corral Lounge), 3304 Nameoki, storm sewer connection, $2,000; Edith Schwaab, 2822 State, carport, $1,180; Louis Golch, 2456 Iowa, porch repairs, $485, and Ronald Buzick, 2408 Grand, roof, $200.

James Talley, 1804 Primrose, storm windows, $435; William Popovchak, 1414 Madison, remodel front of building, $8,000; Granite City Press-Record, 1815 Delmar, remodel front, $800; William Sage, 2825 Grand, overhang, $885; Dale Heiman, 2225 E. 23th, addition, $1,000; Sherwin Williams Paint Co., 3206 Nameoki, sign, no cost listed; Hancel Bailey, 1520 Clark, basement, $3,000; Steve Marlen, 3116 Jill, siding, $2,000, and Randall Viessman, 2119 Fourteenth, remodel and repair, $4,000.

Dam system has been a boon to conservationists, others

An article on this page today from the Reader's Digest summarizes one of its current stories dealing with the proposed construction of new dam and locks two miles downstream from the present aging and deteriorating dam (Lock 26).

As readers undoubtedly are aware, such reprints do not necessarily represent the opinion of this newspaper. They are presented to aid the public in knowing what various publications and officials are saying about topics of current interest.

The copy mailed to us by the Reader's Digest was headed, "Army Corps Engineers tries to pull a fast one. This would appear to be excessive, since there were respected legal authorities on both sides of the issue of whether specific new legislation was needed for each such remodeling-replacement project.

Some of the points made in the article may be valid, while others may not be. One phrase in particular that caught our eyes is

New Madison County Federal office large, eye-pleasing

The 16,000-square-foot office building opened at 3600 Nameoki Road by Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Association is a real asset to the Quad-City area business and commercial district.

Handy, suburb-free airport site offers rare opportunity

Chicago Tribune — The debate over where a new metropolitan St. Louis airport should be built — in Illinois or Missouri — is getting to be the best part. It will soon be over.

At hearings in St. Louis Jan. 13, Secretary of Transportation William T. Coleman Jr. indicated he would make a decision within 60 days whether to build a new airport at Waterloo, Ill., or to expand Lambert Field in St. Louis County. We trust he will do the right thing and choose Illinois.

The issue has been subjected to more study than a freshman text at final exam time.

Three years ago, the Federal Aviation Administration said it didn't need any more studies. Yet the debate, which began in the 1940s, goes on.

The issue's rhetoric is based more on interstate rivalry and pride than on aviation. And, of course, a major new airport can become an economic plum for the area which surrounds it.

If we can assume that air transportation will increase in importance — and that seems to us like a safe assumption — the question of added airport facilities for the St. Louis area becomes not "if" but "when."

Lambert, built in 1921, is not only one of the oldest major airports in the country, but one of the smallest as well. For example, it is only 2,000 acres in size, compared with 9,000 acres for O'Hare.

Congressional sessions face television coverage

By BENJAMIN SHORE

WASHINGTON — It appears now that one significant Bicentennial event will be the opening of the House and Senate chambers to live radio and television coverage.

That may seem like small stuff in these days when television goes almost everywhere to show us what life looks and sounds like.

But you must understand that being able to sit in your home and watch your elected representatives doing your business at your expense will be a victory of major proportions by the television network.

For years the representatives and senators have resisted the idea of television in the House and Senate chambers.

Why, voters might get the wrong impressions from watching and hearing the politicians debate major issues?

Some politicians say ridiculous things; they deserve protection. Some say one thing in debate but another thing at Rotary Club luncheons back home; they need protection. Some members done while issues of major significance are being discussed; they should be protected.

The only official record of floor proceedings is the Congressional Record. Everyone knows it contains some brilliant speeches that never were delivered. It doesn't contain some dumb remarks that were uttered but were edited out by the utterer before the Record went to press.

And reporters sitting in the press galleries at the House and Senate chambers are not permitted to take notes or arguments as their news reports have no space for much else.

Besides, a story that a certain politician slept through the debate, awakening only to cast his vote, always can be denied because cameras are not permitted in the chambers except for special ceremonial occasions.

But now, in this Bicentennial year, all this is likely to change.

After years of patiently testifying before House and Senate committees on the rightness of television coverage, electronic media officials consider the battle won and permission only a matter of months away.

The House Rules Committee is expected to begin considering in late January a resolution admitting radio and television to the House chamber. If the legislative process moves as swiftly as presently is anticipated, the representatives could be on the air as early as March.

And although committees are where legislation is shaped, the chamber floors are where the local and regional, partisan and ideological sentiments are expressed most strongly.

This will give the House a permanent record of its activities and permit the radio and television news agencies to use whatever they wish in their broadcasts, either live for major debates or taped for use in later news programs.

The House also has considered providing closed-circuit television coverage for each representative's office, but that complex and expensive service may be shelved in favor of a simple radio speaker to permit monitoring of debates in progress.

The Senate, whose members traditionally have had a closer rapport with television, is moving much slower in its resolution to admit the electronic media.

However, there no longer is any suggestion that senators don't want to be televised in debate. The delay seems to be due to having more important issues to consider. An official on the Senate Rules Committee said hearings on the resolution likely will be scheduled for late spring.

The American public got a good look at the congressional committee system in action during the Senate hearings on Watergate and the House action on the impeachment of President Nixon.

Is earth's sun shield melting?

By FRANK MACOMBER

A "great space debate" is developing over whether man or nature is threatening to pierce the ozone shield which protects earth from the sun's deadliest rays.

The argument started about three years ago when a group of scientists persuaded Congress that a fleet of supersonic transports (SSTs) flying in the atmosphere probably would diminish the ozone protection to such an extent that eventually the sun's ultraviolet rays would trigger outbreaks of skin cancer among us earthlings and cause dangerous temperature shifts around the world.

The latter, they warned, might lead to another "Ice Age."

Congress was so impressed it killed the nation's SST program after about $2 billion already had been spent on research, development design and construction of a mock-up.

So the ozone depletion discussion died. For awhile, until the environmentalists stirred it up again. Now the federal space agency (NASA), the Commerce Department's National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and the aerospace industry are involved in efforts to settle the argument over whether the ozone is diminishing and, if so, to identify the culprit.

In mid-November NASA launched an atmosphere explorer satellite equipped with an ultraviolet spectrometer to measure the ozone layer in the equatorial region of the globe.

The satellite was to have been sent aloft with a variety of atmospheric measuring instruments but no ozone detector.

Last spring NASA added the latter "to measure the atmospheric distribution of ozone on a global scale" as environmentalists warned that man-made pollutants are building up in the atmosphere at an alarming rate and then will begin breaking down the ozone layer before the end of the 1970s.

With the SST gone, they pointed at commercial aerosol pollutants as the new villains, claiming they climb into the atmosphere and attack the ozone layer.

However, three NOAA scientists have countered these claims by adding new suspects to the growing lineup of agents that may be responsible for variations and melting in the ozone shield.

They claim the sun itself may be destroying the ozone at a faster clip than any other agent.

During solar flares, the sun ejects streams of energetic protons. They set off a variety of reactions in the earth's atmosphere, some of them causing production of nitric oxide. Drs. Paul J. Crutzen, Ivar S. A. Isaksson and George C. Reid of NOAA measured the production of nitric oxide during these solar proton flares and discovered that these events caused significant variations in the tenuous ozone layer.

The scientists, attached to NOAA's Aeronomy Laboratory in Boulder, Colo., suggest that these events, which eventually will be as guilty a culprit as aerosols or nuclear testing.

Nitric oxide is one of the family of nitrogen oxides which appears to be a natural enemy of the ozone, according to the NOAA scientists. The chief source of nitric oxide is the conversion of nitrogen oxide, produced by bacteria in the soil and ocean waters and released into the atmosphere. The NOAA researchers calculate that this natural process puts between 25 million and 50 million molecules of nitric oxide per square centimeter per second into the ozone-destroying system.

The aerospace industry's role in this space detective work was underlined when NASA awarded two $500,000 study contracts for preliminary design of manned space shuttle vehicles to observe the upper atmosphere and determine to what extent the sun's lethal ultraviolet rays are eating away at the ozone.

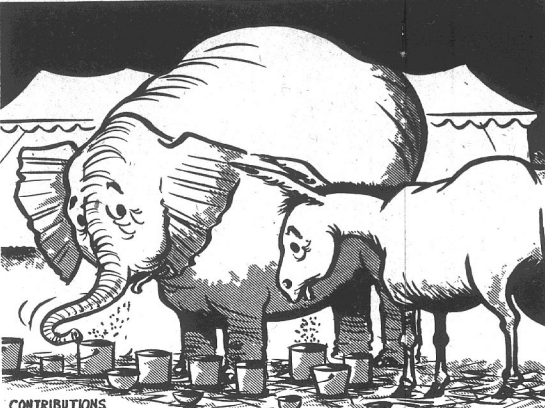

The equipment would be carried in the shuttle's Spacelab, a scientist-manned laboratory to be carried aboard the next-generation spacecraft of the early 1980s.

NASA scientists claim such high atmospheric studies may help find a way to maintain earth's shield against solar wind and to understand the factors leading to atmospheric contamination and long-term climate changes such as the recurrence of the Ice Age.

Long board vacancy called negligent

To the Editor:

It is good to see that at long last Governor Daniel Walker has seen fit to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees for the Southern Illinois University system.

It is further interesting to note that while I had to read of this appointment in the papers Jan. 27, Chairman Tom Elliott was stating that the office of the governor had informed him of the appointment the previous week.

This is a matter that has gone on for many months; it was outrageous negligence on the part of the governor to wait so long to take action.

As far as I know, in making this appointment, he was acting entirely on his own. It is hoped that he gave the SIUE metropolitan area the consideration that he promised.

Mr. Wayne Heberer is unknown to me. As chairman of the Illinois Senate Committee on Executive Appointments, it will be my responsibility to see that his nomination is given careful scrutiny before the committee makes its recommendation to the entire Senate on confirmation.

Of course, we would also consult with Senator Kenneth Hall, in whose district Mr. Heberer resides. We would certainly hope that Mr. Heberer would make an outstanding trustee.

This matter will certainly be handled with great dispatch in the Senate than it was in the governor's office.

Delegate selection a vital process

To the Editor:

Many of us overlook a very important election in the March 16 primary. That is, the election of delegates.

It is important because the delegates will elect the President and establish the Democratic platform. The election of delegates is important in the March 16 primary. Voters should know where candidates stand on various issues:

1. I oppose abortion. I believe abortion is wrong. It is a moral issue just as slavery was in the 1850s. I support a constitutional amendment to prohibit unlimited abortion.

2. I oppose gun control. Americans have the right to own and possess firearms. Criminals are going to secure guns no matter what. One effective way to reduce violent crime is by imposing stringent and mandatory penalties for crimes committed with guns.

3. I oppose forced busing. I support tax reform that would provide incentives for industry and businesses to expand their plants and increase their employment.

Whether or not the people agree with me, it is important that they know where I stand on such significant issues. I hope they feel it is important to elect a Democrat who is free and uncommitted and not controlled by any vested-interest group.

Dam replacement questioned

(Reader's Digest)

Involving a 67-year-old loophole, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has spent $1 billion enlarging and deepening a canal to St. Louis to Minneapolis, increasing canal capacity by even consulting Congress. The unauthorized cost to the taxpayer could go as high as $10 billion, and Congress is doing nothing.

This maneuver was unauthorized by two congressional authorization groups—the Sierra Club and Isaac Walton League—in their efforts to halt construction of a dam across the Upper Mississippi. The incredible details of the operation are set forth by James Miller in the February Reader's Digest.

In 1970, the Engineers asked for and got a $350,000 appropriation from Congress to draw up plans for repairing a dam at Alton, Ill., built in the 1930s.

The only ones to pay much attention to the proposal were conservationists who were already concerned over the already threatened Upper Mississippi by existing dams. What emerged, when the conservationists began to look into the situation, was a "can of worms." The Corps has authority, under an act passed in 1909, to make urgent repairs to existing dams without Congressional authority; all it has to do is send the Congress an advisory-type letter, and Congress automatically gives its approval.

But in this case, the Corps was planning to construct an entirely new dam a couple of miles downstream from Alton, and many conservationists so as not to draw attention to it.

In addition, it planned to construct canal locks, double the size and deeper than the existing locks on the Upper Mississippi. This subterfuge had worked successfully on the Ohio canal system.

Conservationists strongly suspected a master plan to similarly "improve" all 29 locks from St. Louis to Minneapolis, increasing canal capacity by four times; they sought suit in federal court to halt construction and won.

Now the Corps of Engineers must take its case to Congress for specific authorization to spend $400 million for the new dam at Alton.

Congress, before it votes on the issue, must decide whether larger locks are really needed, and if so, who's to pay for them—barge operators or the taxpayer.

Women of the Moose ball Feb. 14

Plans were finalized by Women of the Moose Chapter 247 for its annual Queen of Hearts Ball during two meetings conducted in January by Miss Ruth Stever, senior regent.

The formal event will begin at 9 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 14, at the Moose Hall, 19th and Adams streets. Those nominated as queen candidates are Doris Wilson, Martha Williams, Alice Skager, Sue Goodman and Margaret Feeney.

Tickets are available in advance from any candidate. None will be sold at the door. Music for dancing will be provided by the Four Seasons.

Several prizes will be awarded during the ball, organizers said. At the planning meeting, Mrs. Velma Finney and Mrs. Gerry Spiece were accorded honors on their birthdays and prizes were awarded to Mildred Walker, Mary Anderson and Pamela Dayton.

Members presented Miss Stever with a "memory box" containing pictures, a corsage and a doll dressed to resemble the senior regent. All were reminiscent of her installation. Mrs. Doris Wilson, chairman of the chapter development committee, reviewed her committee's activities in relation to child care, the month's theme.

She also introduced a new member, Mrs. Elsie Quinlan, who was enrolled in honor of Mrs. Wilson and her committee. Discussions were held on Chapter Rally Day, to be hosted by the local chapter in March, and the April state convention in Decatur, with 10 area chapters participating. Decorations at the meeting were in keeping with the child care theme. Toys were used to create a "nursery" atmosphere.

Refreshments were served to 44 members and prizes were won by Frances Westbrook, Leitha Worthen and Mary Hommert.

Children encounter lack of concern in many homes—adviser

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County Extension
Adviser-Homes Economics

Life in the United States is changing — and fast. And it isn't surprising that some of the changes affect family members in a variety of ways.

That's how many family life authorities explain the current difficulties some people have in holding to the more traditional family structures.

For example, they cite the decreasing number of adults in the family who care for children. Less than four percent of all U. S. households include both children and grandparents. And even if the grandparents live near, they often prefer not to be involved in child-raising responsibilities.

Another change is the greater involvement of both parents in full-time jobs. About 26 percent of all U. S. children less than six years of age have working mothers. And half of the mothers in single-parent families are now in the labor force.

The boom in use of child care centers is another change. Between 1965 and 1970, the number of children in such centers doubled. There continues to be a greater demand than supply of such facilities.

At the same time, parents find it difficult to judge which facilities provide the most satisfactory care and difficult to pay for them.

The divorce rate among families with children has nearly doubled during the past 10 years.

In 1970, ten per cent of all children less than six years of age lived in single-parent families.

Of course, the increased cost of living is having far-reaching effects on U. S. families. And while the effect exists at all economic levels, the greatest stress is on the lower-income families.

Most single-parent families live in poverty. In 1970, the average income for single-parent families with children less than six years of age was $3,100.

Many factors contribute to the alienation of families and children. One example is separation of residence and business, and of child-care facilities and business.

Some research reports document a trend toward less interaction between parents and children. There's no doubt about it; many of today's children are organization children. Children are isolated from parents by organized formal and informal activities — and by television.

As a result, children today are more dependent on peers than before — especially in families where one or both parents are frequently gone.

Evidence indicates that children's attachment to others their own age seems more greatly influenced by lack of attention and concern at home than by any positive attraction of the peer group itself.

Ollie Raymand to MC cancer ball

In April 1973, KMOX-TV introduced a new concept in television in the form of a "link man." Raymand was named to this job, which includes appearing on camera throughout the day giving public service announcements, time, weather and temperature checks and station identification.

Raymand hosted four live radio shows in Chicago for WBBM, the CBS radio network affiliate, from 1969 until 1965 when he joined the KMOX-TV staff.

Prior to the sixth annual Mardi Gras Ball, starting at 9 p.m. Feb. 28, a special patron's cocktail party will take place at the new Ramada Inn in Alton from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Patrons will meet special guests, including the Hollywood celebrity.

Much aluminum recycled here

Aluminum recycling at the Nameki Village Shopping Center in Granite City has been successful during a trial period and will become a continuing part of the nation's largest consumer program of aluminum recycling, it was announced today.

Continuation of the program will afford individuals and organizations in the area an opportunity to make money while helping to clean up the environment, a spokesman said.

Ronald L. Bialek, manager of the Reynolds Aluminum recycling plant in Belleville, said collections at the shopping center during December and January were equal to more than 26,000 all-aluminum beverage cans.

The mobile recycling unit will stop at Nameki Village on the second and fourth Saturdays of each month, from noon until 3 p.m. Collection dates this month will be Feb. 14 and 28.

The unit driver weighs and pays for the metal as it is delivered.

Reynolds pays 15 cents per pound for aluminum cans and other clean household aluminum, such as foil, pie pans, frozen food and dinner trays, dip and pudding and meat containers. Certain other types of clean all-aluminum items may be redeemed at a lower price.

Study state electronic fund transfer

The Illinois Bankers Association has commissioned a massive feasibility study of the need for creation of a statewide electronic funds transfer network.

Arthur F. Busboom, Rantoul, president of the 971-member bank group, said the study will be conducted by the management consulting division of the accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. The firm will make its recommendations to the IBA about April 1 of this year.

"Illinois becomes the first major state to commission such an independent and extensive EFT project. The recommendation to carry out and fund the study came after our funds transfer committee completed seven months of research."

"During this time, they traveled extensively across the country to analyze strengths and weaknesses in electronic funds transfer networks and systems which were functioning or being developed. The IBA is now prepared to prudently and objectively determine the feasibility of our trade group sponsoring an independent EFT network."

"This network would be designed to provide all banks seeking electronic funds transfer capabilities an alternative to existing systems in our state," Busboom said. "Above all, we want to be absolutely certain that consumers in Illinois are benefited by such a network and that their right of privacy and security in financial transactions is protected."

Daniel N. Quigley, chairman of the IBA's 15-member EFT committee, said the study will investigate legal, financial, organizational, marketing and implementation requirements for a statewide network.

"It is the opinion of the IBA's EFT committee and our governing Council of Administration that our approach to this question is being handled in a positive manner. The long range implications of electronic banking require careful consideration now."

"If our study finds that Illinois banks and consumers need a viable alternative in the EFT environment, then the IBA will give serious consideration to sponsoring the formation of a separate entity which will be owned, operated and maintained by the banks of this state."

"Through this entity and the resulting network, consumers will be able to take advantage of any electronic banking need (such as point-of-sale terminals) that might exist," Quigley concluded.
